Multilingual

PERFECT FOR: Meetings | Education | Broadcast | Events | Live streaming

Open your content to new markets and break down language barriers with Ai-Media's comprehensive range of multilingual solutions.

Because we have the expertise and the cutting-edge technology, we can work with you to find exactly the right solution for your specific language needs.

Add value to your content, in any language.

- Services in any language - including spoken languages and sign languages
- Add multilingual to any of our captioning services
- Embed subtitles or translated audio onto any video specification
- iCap Translate can be used with any iCap compatible captioning system
- For more information about our multilingual services, click here
- 24/7 global service
- Available for complex events, tools and platforms
- Option of added localization: Translate your content and ensure your references are culturally relevant to each language group at the same time
- Highly scalable

Request a quote for pricing and options