NORTE FLAMENCO

José María Jiménez

Gypsy Flamenco Group

José María Jiménez is a gipsy Spanish flamenco guitarist. He was born in San Sebastián. When he was 16 years old he traveled to work in Granada in the most prestigious Flamenco School with Emilio Maya.

He has accompanied to figures of flamenco. Dancers and singers like Chonchi Heredia, Titi Flores, El Lebrijano, José Mercé, Potito, Mario Maya and Antonio Canales. He has also composed the shows of the dancer Nuria Cazorla with the flautist Omar Acosta, and the Flamenco ballet of Ángela Cruz, based on the poetry Federico García Lorca.

He currently works as guitarist in national contests with famous and emergent singers. He is interested in spreading the flamenco art and culture in schools and foundations through specialized masterclasses. In 2015 he has been working as the guitarist of some of the most famous artists like "Farruquito" "Guadiana" and “Pedro Granaíno” and another international figures. José María Jiménez is the creator of a group stage that contains the best gipsy flamenco artists from the North of Spain.

In 2017 his flamenco group was selected to represent the art of Spain in the international forum of the European Cultural Capital Pafos 2017. Cyprus

Video link Performance at Cyprus: European Capital of Culture

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iRiP7UT6Fok