

Unique event venues in Estonia

From the medieval heritage of Tallinn's Old Town to its ultramodern architecture, from castles and manors dating back as far as the 13th century to rustic farm houses – Estonia offers a wide range of unique festive and formal event venues.

Tallinn Creative Hub is a fantastic example of early-20th-century industrial architecture which served as part of the city's central power plant from 1913 to 1979. It's name in Estonian translates to 'Culture Cauldron' in reference to the former boiler room that now makes up the largest meeting space of the 600-person venue.

The historic hangars of the Seaplane Harbour house Tallinn's modern maritime museum . The museum was opened in May 2012 and displays in excess of 200 large exhibits. A treasure chest of marine history, the Seaplane Harbour is a spectacular setting in which to host an unforgettable and most definitely unique event. From receptions for up to 1,500 people to gala dinners seating approximately 700, the Seaplane Harbour offers a versatile venue for any event.

Located in Lahemaa National Park, the elegant Vihula Manor offers a perfect getaway from the hustle and bustle of city life, a comfortable place to stay on a business trip, and a cosy environment for corporate celebrations.
