New Ideas to Explore Greece

ALTERNATIVE GREECE

Fed up with the usual, conventional holidays, just sitting on a beach doing nothing?
Get to know Greece in an alternative way, by cycling, hiking or getting fully engaged in everyday Greek life. If you are into outdoor & sports activities, try sea kayak, horse riding, rafting, cycling or hiking on well-designed trails through beautiful Greek mainland. If you want to know more about rural life and its culinary habits, you can go on a Wine/Food Tour, attend a cooking class or join an Olive Oil or Ouzo & Honey tour. You can even be a beekeeper for a day! Depending on your preferences, we can customize a full holiday package with alternative tours, an unforgettable experience for sophisticated travelers.

Alternative Greece Tours suggestions:

Ouzo & Honey Tour • Wine Tour in Nemea
Olive Oil Tour • Food Tour in Nafplio or Athens
Cooking Class in Nafplio or Athens
Traditional Cooking Workshop
Dinner at home with a local family
Beekeeper for a day at Nafplio
Sea Kayak in Nafplio & Tolo
Horse Riding • Rafting in Arcadia
Kite-Surf course in Nafplio
Hiking Tour • Cycling Tour
Hiking the Mainalon Trail (Peloponnese)
Hiking at Mount Olympus
Cycling along Laconia or Messinia Coast

TEAM BUILDING ACTIVITIES

Are you in Greece for a convention or a corporate event? Take the opportunity to combine business with fun with some really interesting activities along with your colleagues.
Team building activities can improve teamwork, develop trust and enhance problem solving skills. The best teams can benefit from team building exercises as they are a great way of improving communication, morale, motivation, productivity helping employees to get to know each other better, and learning about one's strengths and weaknesses. Team building activities can be used by any business, large or small, to promote better teamwork in the workplace, and as most business owners and managers know, great teamwork is one of the key factors associated with a company's success.

Team Building Ideas:

Athens Sensations Treasure Hunt • Cook Like a Greek
'Zorba' Sirtaki Flash Mob • Beach Olympics
Raft Building Rescue
Trek Orienteering and Survival Challenge
Greek Olive and Olive Oil Experience
Beekeeper for a day at Nafplio

Day 3 – Full Day Cruise After transferring from Athens to Marina Flisvos by coach, you'll set sail for the 3 islands of the Argosaronic Gulf. As soon as the cruise ship leaves, the ship's guide and the hostesses will help you get acquainted and shall give you all the information concerning the ship, the program of the cruise and the islands and to make sure you will have a pleasant day. Take advantage of this day cruise from Athens to the fabulous Greek islands of Hydra, Poros and Aegina for a relaxing day on the sea. With all your transport, transfers and buffet lunch organized, you can sit back and enjoy your leisurely day cruise with free time on each island to explore.

The island of Hydra is the favorite island of the jet set, whose old traditional beautiful stone houses and mansions silently witness to a long and turbulent story. Although Poros is the smallest of the three islands that we visit, its attraction is the narrow strait offering the most enchanting view of the town. Aegina is a popular getaway for Athenians during the summer months, as this lovely island is only 31 miles (50 kilometers) from Athens. Upon arrival to the island, you can either join an optional excursion to the Temple of Aphaia or take a walk around the main town. On our way back to Marina Flisvos, a traditional Greek folk show with singers and dancers will entertain you up to the final moment as the ship arrives at Marina Flisvos, from where you will be transferred back to Athens.

Day 3 – One Day tour to Mycenae & Epidaurus After breakfast, pick up from hotel for your one day tour to Mycenae and Epidaurus in order to explore some of the most famous archaeological sites in Greece. We drive via the coastal National highway for the Corinth canal, where we have a short stop. After the Corinth canal, we enter the region of Argolis and the land of Homer's Golden Mycenae, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Dating back to the second century B.C., Mycenae was one of the major centers of Greek civilization and a military stronghold which dominated much of southern Greece. We visit the archaeological site, home to the kingdom of mythical Agamemnon, where we shall see the Cyclopean Walls, the Lion's Gate, the Royal Tombs, including Agamemnon Clytemnestra's, and the Treasury of Atreus, a magnificent 14th-century B.C. structure. Before lunch there will be an optional stop in a pottery factory and a traditional Greek optional lunch at a nearby restaurant is available. We continue our drive through Argos and we proceed to Nauplia or Nafplion, the first capital of modern Greece with its Venetian fortress of Palamidi and the fortified islet of Bourtzi (short stop). We continue our trip to Epidaurus and visit the ancient theatre. The UNESCO'S world heritage listed monument is reputed to be the birthplace of Apollo's son, Asklepios the healer and was the most celebrated healing center of the classical world. Epidaurus is renowned for its theatre, one of the best preserved classical Greek structures and is still used today due to its amazing acoustics. Our Argolis (Mycenae - Epidaurus) day tour returns to Athens late in the afternoon.

Along our way from Athens to Delphi, we pass by the plain of Boeotia, one of the most important agricultural centers in Greece, as well as by the city of Thebes, the birthplace of King Oedipus.

We will continue our Delphi day tour towards Mount Parnassos, making a short rest stop outside the town of Levadia. We will then drive to Delphi, known as the navel of the world in ancient times. We walk by Castalia Spring, visit the archaeological site and view the monument of the Argive Kings, the treasury of the Athenians, the Athenian Stoa, the Polygonal Wall, the monument of Platea and of course, the Temple of Apollo, famous for its oracle. We also visit Delphi museum, whose spectacular exhibits include the frieze of the Treasury of the Sifnians, the Naxian Sphinx, the Statue of Antinoos, the metopes of the Athenian treasury, the famous bronze Charioteer, originally created to commemorate a victory during the 476 B.C. Pythian Games, and many other artifacts. After lunch, we return to Athens via the picturesque mountain village of Arachova, built on the south slopes of Parnassus, well known for its attractive hand-woven carpets, rugs and quilts, as well as for its wine and cheese (short stop). Our Delphi day tour returns to Athens late in the afternoon.

Day 3 – Delphi After breakfast, pick up from hotel for your two day tour to Delphi and Meteora in order to explore some of the most famous sites in Greek mainland. Passing through the spectacular sites of Boeotia, Thebes and Levadia, our first stop is Delphi, the center of earth and universe for Ancient Greeks. Famous for its theater, the Temple of Apollo and its ancient ruins, Delphi was considered the navel of the world and played a very important role in the classical ancient Greek world. We visit the archaeological site and the Temple of Apollo, famous for its oracle. In the afternoon, we depart for Kalambaka, by crossing the Thessalian plain in Central Greece through the cities of Lamia (short stop) and Trikala. Kalambaka is a small town built at the foot of the majestic Meteora grey rocks, just below the Monasteries (short stop for souvenirs). Overnight stay in Kalambaka.

Day 4 – Kalambaka & Meteora Today, we depart in the morning for nearby Meteora on a tour of the cliff-top monasteries by visiting two different Byzantine Monasteries, built on top of rock towers and offering fantastic views over the plain. Meteora is included on the UNESCO world heritage monument list. The monasteries are perched on top of towers of sandstone, which provided the monks with totally inaccessible retreats for centuries. Meteora is considered one of the most beautiful areas of Greek mainland and its cluster of monasteries is one of the country's most unique attractions.

On our way back from the monasteries, there is an optional visit to a factory of Byzantine style icons. We return to Athens passing by the heroic monument of Leonidas, the King of Sparta in Thermopylae (short stop for photos). The tour returns to Athens late in the afternoon

Day 5 – Athens Day at leisure to explore Athens city on your own or join one of our capturing optional tours (Cape Sounion, 1 Day 3 Argosaronic Islands, 1 Day Delphi Tour or many others).

Don't miss the opportunity to make the most of your stay in Athens by getting to know its everyday life. Our licensed guide will make you feel as if you are experiencing firsthand Athens's old and new history as you look at these stately buildings. We continue for a photo stop at Panathenaic Stadium, otherwise known as Kallimarmaro Stadium, where the first Olympic Games took place in 1896. As we proceed, we pass by Zappeion and the Temple of Olympian Zeus. Last but not least, we make our way to the archaeological site of Acropolis, an UNESCO'S world heritage monument and we visit Propylae, as well as the small Temple of Athena Nike. Of course, our visit shall not be completed without the Parthenon and Erechtheion. The expert guided Athens sightseeing and museum tour continues with a pleasant short walk passing by Herodion and Dionysos Theater, in order to visit the New Acropolis Museum. With this Athens half day tour you will enjoy one of the top UNESCO'S world heritage monuments. At the end of our tour, return back to your hotel. Balance of the day at leisure.

Day 3 – Corinth Canal - Epidaurus - Mycenae - Olympia After breakfast, pick up from hotel for your four day Classical Greece tour to explore the glory of ancient Greece with and visit five UNESCO'S world heritage sites. We depart from Athens for the Corinth canal (short stop). After our short stop at Corinth, we drive to Epidaurus and visit the Ancient theatre, world famous for its outstanding acoustics. We then proceed to Nauplia (short stop) and through the plain of Argos, we arrive to Mycenae, where we visit its archaeological site and the Tomb of Agamemnon. In the afternoon (optional stop for souvenirs), we depart for Olympia, the birth place of the Olympic Games. Overnight stay in Olympia.

Day 4 – Olympia - Delphi We start our day with a visit to the Olympia archaeological site with the Temple of Zeus, the Temple of Hera, the altar of the Olympic flame, the Stadium and the archaeological Museum. After Olympia, we depart via Patras (short stop) to Rion, cross the Corinthian bay by the new bridge to Antirion. Pass by the city of Nafpaktos and from there on, along the coastal road to Delphi, known in ancient times as the navel of the world. In the afternoon, we visit the picturesque mountain village of Arachova. Overnight stay in Delphi.

Day 5 – Delphi - Kalambaka (Meteora) In the morning, we visit the archaeological site and the Museum of Delphi. After our navigation through the center of earth and universe for Ancient Greeks, Delphi, we depart for Kalambaka, by crossing the Thessalian plain in Central Greece through the cities of Lamia (short stop) and Trikala. Kalambaka is a small town built at the foot of the majestic Meteora grey rocks, just below the Monasteries. Overnight stay in Kalambaka.

Day 6 – Kalambaka & Meteora Today, we depart in the morning for nearby Meteora on a tour of the cliff-top monasteries by visiting two different Byzantine Monasteries, built on top of rock towers and offering fantastic views over the plain. Meteora is included on the UNESCO world heritage monument list. The monasteries are perched on top of towers of sandstone, which provided the monks with totally inaccessible retreats for centuries. Meteora is considered one of the most beautiful areas of Greek mainland and its cluster of monasteries is one of the country's most unique attractions. We return to Athens passing by the heroic monument of Leonidas, the King of Sparta in Thermopylae (short stop for photos).The tour returns to Athens late in the afternoon.

Full Day tour to Delphi with lunch (FD)

Start our one day tour to Delphi in order to explore one of the most famous archaeological sites in Greece. Along our way from Athens to Delphi, we pass by the plain of Boeotia, one of the most important agricultural centers in Greece, as well as by the city of Thebes, the birthplace of King Oedipus. We will continue our Delphi day tour towards Mount Parnassos, making a short rest stop outside the town of Levadia. We will then drive to Delphi, known as the navel of the world in ancient times. We walk by Castalia Spring, visit the archaeological site and view the monument of the Argive Kings, the treasury of the Athenians, the Athenian Stoa, the Polygonal Wall, the monument of Platea and of course, the Temple of Apollo, famous for its oracle. We also visit Delphi museum, whose spectacular exhibits include the frieze of the Treasury of the Sifnians, the Naxian Sphinx, the Statue of Antinoos, the metopes of the Athenian treasury, the famous bronze Charioteer, originally created to commemorate a victory during the 476 B.C. Pythian Games, and many other artifacts. After lunch, we return to Athens via the picturesque mountain village of Arachova, built on the south slopes of Parnassus, well known for its attractive hand-woven carpets, rugs and quilts, as well as for its wine and cheese (short stop).
Our Delphi day tour returns to Athens late in the afternoon.

Full Day tour to Argolis (Epidaurus & Mycenae) with lunch (FD)

With this guided one full day trip from Athens to Argolis, we will have the chance to explore the remains of the ancient city of Mycenae, a major center of Greek civilization from 1600BC to 1100BC and a world heritage monument. We depart from our hotel for our tour via the coastal National highway for the Corinth canal (short stop). After the Corinth Canal, we enter the region of Argolis, land of Homer's Golden Mycenae, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Dating back to the second century B.C., Mycenae was one of the major centers of Greek civilization and a military stronghold which dominated much of southern Greece. We visit the archaeological site, home to the kingdom of mythical Agamemnon. We will see the Cyclopean Walls, the Lion's Gate, the Royal Tombs, including Agamemnon's and Clytemnestra's, as well as the Treasury of Atreus, a magnificent 14th-century B.C. structure. After our visit to Mycenae, we will have lunch at a nearby restaurant. Before lunch, we may have an optional stop in a pottery factory. After lunch, we proceed through Argos to Nafplion, the first capital of modern Greece, with its Venetian fortress of Palamidi and the fortified islet of Bourtzi (short stop). We continue to Epidaurus and visit its famous ancient theatre. The UNESCO'S world heritage listed monument is reputed to be the birthplace of Apollo's son, Asclepius the healer and was the most celebrated healing center of the classical world.
Epidaurus is very well known for its theatre, one of the best preserved classical Greek constructions which is still used today thanks to its amazing acoustics. The Argolis (Mycenae - Epidaurus) day tour returns to Athens late in the afternoon.

8 Days / 7 Nights

Day 1 – Heraklion Upon arrival at Heraklion International Airport, go directly to pick up your car by our partner at the airport and get ready for an unforgettable road trip on the island of Crete. First stop, Heraklion city. Drive to your hotel and overnight.

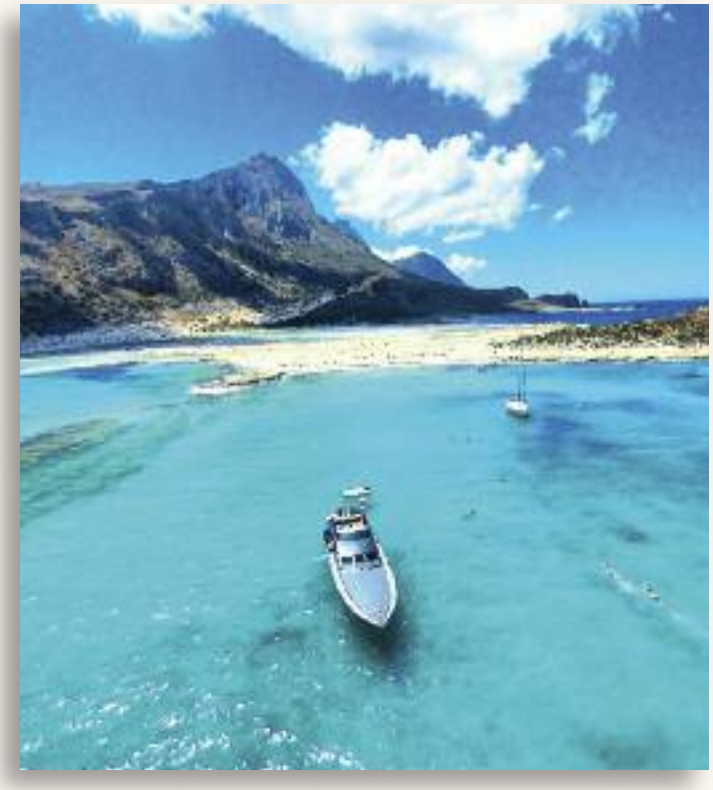

Day 2 – Heraklion Day at leisure to explore Heraklion city and its surrounding area on your own or join one of our capturing optional tours (Knossos Archaeological Tour or Elounda & Ag. Nikolaos Tour).
Areas of interest in Heraklion city: Knossos Minoan Palace, Heraklion Archaeological Museum, Heraklion central Square, Phaestos Minoan Palace, Koules Venetian Fortress (Heraklion), Creta Aquarium, El Greco Museum.

Day 3 – Heraklion - Rethymno Early breakfast and check out from your hotel. Today you'll start your journey to northwest Crete, towards Rethymno city. Drive through the magnificent Cretan scenery, passing by mesmerizing beaches such as Ag. Pelagia, Bali, Panormos and arrive at your first overnight stop in Rethymno, a big seaside town between Heraklion and Chania. Balance of the day at leisure.

Day 4 – Rethymno Today you have the opportunity to drive around the area and explore thoroughly this part of Crete.
Areas of interest in Rethymno & its surrounding area: Rethymno Lighthouse, Fortezza of Rethymno, Old town of Rethymno, Sultan Ibrahim Mosque, Arkadi Monastery, Ancient Eleftherna archaeological site.

Day 5 – Rethymno - Chania It's time to leave Rethymno area and drive to another seaside region, Chania, one of the most beautiful seaside towns in Crete. Drive around the area and explore a whole new world of this Cretan seaside area.

Day 6 – Chania An entire day at our disposal to drive around the area and experience firsthand the Cretan way of life. Don't miss visiting some of the most beautiful Cretan beaches, such as Balos, Falassarna and the unique Elafonissi.
Areas of interest in Chania city & its surrounding area: Chania Old port & its Venetian Lighthouse, Ottoman Baths (Chania town), Naval Museum of Crete (Chania Town), Samaria Gorge, Frangokastello Fortress, Monastery of Virgin Mary Chrissoskalitissa (Elafonissi area).

Day 7 – Chania-Heraklion After your exploration in this northwest part of Crete, it's time to leave Chania area and its sea breeze and return to Heraklion, before your international departure. During your drive back, seize the opportunity to make several stops for a quick swim in some of the beaches in between. Overnight in Heraklion.

Day 8 – Departure from Heraklion Breakfast at the hotel and drive to Heraklion International Airport for dropping off your car before taking your departure flight.

Please note that if you would like to extent your stay in Chania without returning to Heraklion town for departure, there is the possibility to drop off your car at Chania, provided that your departure flight is from Chania International Airport (rental surcharge may apply for different drop off location)*

8 Days / 7 Nights

Day 1 – Athens Upon arrival at Athens International Airport, you will be met by our representative, who will assist you with your car rental and accompany you to your hotel in Athens, informing you about your road trip. Balance of the day at leisure. If time permits depending on your arrival time in Athens, you may enjoy one of our optional tours. (Cape Sounion Or Athens By night with Traditional Greek show). Overnight in Athens.

Day 2 – Athens Day at leisure. Enjoy the morning strolling the Athenian streets of the commercial center of the capital. Visit Monastiraki area with the always interesting flea market. Pay a visit to the Central Fruit market and have a typical Greek souvlaki for lunch. You can also go on a shopping spree at Ermou Street or Voukourestiou Street, for some extra luxury. In the afternoon, you can enjoy your coffee by the sea at the Athenian Riviera, by visiting Floisvos Harbor or Glyfada area. After some relaxing, you can also spend the night exploring the Athenian nightlife in a bar at Kolonaki or Karytsi area. If you are interested in a day dedicated in the cultural aspect of Athens, you can always enjoy an optional Half Day Sightseeing Tour in Athens, with a panoramic overview of the main sights and a guided tour in the Archaeological Site of Acropolis (Parthenon) and the New Acropolis Museum. If you like cruises, you can go on a Full Day Cruise to the Argosaronic Gulf, visiting the beautiful Hydra, Poros & Aegina. Overnight in Athens.

Day 3 & 4 – Athens - Tolo Early breakfast and check out from your hotel. Today you'll start your journey to Southeast Peloponnese. Drive through the magnificent Peloponnesian scenery and arrive at your first overnight stop in Tolo, a small seaside town, nearby Nafplion City. The village of Tolo, primarily a fishing village located in the county of Argolida, has a spectacular beauty sprawling out along the picturesque beach and surrounded by a protective circle of mountains, having the advantages of being both open and secluded. Drive around the area and explore every nook and cranny of this part of Peloponnese. Make sure to visit Nafplio, the first capital of Hellenic Republic on 1821, take a swim at its close-by Karathona beach or Psili Ammos in Tolo.

Enjoy your stay in Tolo by driving around east Peloponnese and finding out why it's one of the most beautiful places in Greek mainland. If you are interested in some archeological sightseeing, do not miss visiting Ancient Mycenae and the old Theater of Epidaurus. Moreover, you can visit Ancient Asini, just a few minutes from Tolo. 2 Overnights in Tolo.

Day 5 & 6 – Tolo – Porto Heli It's time to leave Tolo area and drive to another seaside region, Porto Heli.

Porto Heli is situated on a bay of the Argolic Gulf and the ancient city of Halieis (named "Halike" by Pausanias), is situated nearby. Apart from the nice beaches of the area, you should definitely take the local ferry to Spetses, a picturesque island where no cars are allowed within the town's limits. Walk around its amazing streets full with little shops, cafeterias and taverns, hire a horse-carriage for a romantic ride or just visit one of its close-by beaches, such as Kaiki beach for some relaxing with a mouthwatering cocktail. If you are a sea-lover, you should definitely visit Ermioni, a beautiful coastal town facing the islands of Hydra and Dokos. The sea there is amazing and you should really go for a swim there. But the area is not only famous for its beaches; it has also a cultural aspect as it has been continuously inhabited, at least since the times of Homer. During the classic era it was well known for its shipbuilders and also for the production of porphyra, a very important red dye, used for the coloring of the uniforms of many armies including that of Alexander the Great. Drive around the area and explore a whole new world of the Greek countryside. 2 Overnights in Porto Heli.

Day 7 – Porto Heli - Athens After your exploration in East Peloponnese, it's time to leave Porto Heli area and its sea breeze and return to Athens, before your international departure.

Drive through Peloponnese once again on your way back to Athens for your last minute shopping and a last night out in the vivid Greek capital.

Day 8 – Departure from Athens Breakfast at the hotel and drive to Athens International Airport for dropping off your car before taking your departure flight.

Shore Excursions in Greece

A variety of Shore Excursions can be provided in any of port of call.
We use our expertise to select the highest quality shore excursions delivered by local experts in the most cost effective manner for our travelers.
Private Shore Excursions allow you to travel with your party alone and, in many cases, to fully customize your shore tour. For groups of 4 or more, we can usually arrange a private shore excursion for less than the cost of a large cruise line tour.
Small Group Shore Excursions generally range in size from 2-20 people, providing a more personalized experience than the large excursions offered by the cruise lines.
Standard Shore Excursions typically range from 20-50 people. While these day excursions are larger in size, our focus on quality remains extremely high.
Our shore excursions can be cultural, active, culinary or just relaxing by the beach along with water activities.
