LIVING THE CAMINO

In "Living the Camino" our main goal is that the Way of St. James becomes an experience that everyone can enroll. We want our clients to enjoy a different kind of journey, full of sensations and adventures that go beyond the typical tourist destinations everyone is accustomed to.

In order to achieve this, we offer the main Ways organized in different stretches and accommodation options. The French Way, the Northern Way, the Original Way, the English Way, the Portuguese Way, the Silver Route, the Sanabria Way and the Fisterra Way. Different Ways with the same aim: enjoying a period of self-discovery while you get to know new and exciting places and establish unforgettable friendships.

Whether you are looking for the comfort and pleasure of the Charming Hotels or you prefer to surround yourself with the classical pilgrim atmosphere in Hostels, we offer you the opportunity to choose the kind of accommodation that is more suitable for you. We also have a medium option, Inns & Guesthouses, which offers comfort and simplicity as well as a perfect location in the towns and villages.

In addition to the options for individuals who prefer to walk the Way as a self-guided tour, we also offer the organization of guided-tours for groups.

We also have special packages for different organizations such as Schools and Associations of People with Disabilities. Our main objective is that everyone can enjoy this amazing trip.

If you are thinking about setting forth on this incomparable journey, we can help you organize it so everything goes according to your plan, having constant support; that way, the only thing you will need to do is walking and enjoying the experience.

FRENCH WAY

The French Way is probably the most well-known route of those heading to Santiago de Compostela. It is also the most beaten track of all.

It is a perfect route for those setting forth on this adventure for the first time, as the sign posts and infrastructures are really good.

You can start from St. Jean Pied de Port or Roncesvalles, and walking this Way you will have the opportunity to visit many of the most beautiful cities in Spain, such as Pamplona, Logroño, Burgos, León and, of course, Santiago de Compostela.

These are just some of the many treasures this incredible route offers, since every village and every area has its particular charm, which causes the pilgrim to enjoy even more this adventure.

THE PORTUGUESE WAY

The French Way may be the most well-known, but for those who prefer to avoid the saturation it presents specially during the summer time, we have available other options, such us the Portuguese Way. Even though people usually starts this route from Tui (in Spain), there are more and more pilgrims who prefer to set forth on this adventure from the beautiful city of Oporto (Portugal).

Tui – Santiago is the perfect route if you have few vacation days, since you can perfectly finish the walk in a week or eight days.

On the other hand, if you have more days available and you prefer walking or cycling the 240 km separating Oporto from Santiago, we recommend you do not miss the chance to visit Oporto and the amazing Cathedral, as well as other towns and landmarks.

8 days / 7 nights. Prices from:

Hostels: 255 €
Inns: 480 €
Hotels: 615 €

THE NORTHERN WAY

One of the most beautiful parts of Spain is the North, and this Way offers you the opportunity to fall in love with the wonderful areas of the Basque Country, Cantabria, Asturias and Galicia.

You can either begin your trip from Irún or San Sebastián, and along the Way to Santiago you will be able to visit cities like Bilbao, Santander, Gijón, Avilés and Ribadeo.

But, just like it happens with the French Way, in the Northern Way not only the cities shine in this route, since there are many towns and villages famous for their beauty.

This is a route that combines mountains, beaches and historic places, offering the pilgrim a complete experience of Northern Spain.

7 days / 6 nights. Prices from:

SILVER ROUTE

Many centuries ago, the Southwest and Northwest of Spain joined together thanks to the Roman causeways, and that was also the origin of the Silver Route.

These causeways where built and used by the Romans, later on, the Arabs used them to conquer the Peninsula, and finally, the Christians, after the Reconquest, employed the roads to do their pilgrimage towards the Apostle's tomb.

Nowadays, walking the Silver Route gives the opportunity to visit many places in Spain full of history and with great artistic heritage as well as iconic landmarks. Sevilla, Mérida, Cáceres, Salamanca, Zamora... All these beautiful cities are worth a visit, offering incomparable places and spectacular gastronomy.

THE ENGLISH WAY

Another alternative more peaceful than the French Way is the English Way. You will start walking from Ferrol, city characteristic for its impressive military dockyards and the historic borough of the Magdalena.

You will keep walking towards Neda, where you can see the Clock Tower and San Nicolás Gothic Church. After this, you will continue via Pontedeume (Tower of the Andrade), Betanzos (Santiago's Church), Hospital de Bruma, and Sigüeiro.

This is the perfect Way to accomplish the last 100 km needed to obtain the Compostela and also enjoy the beautiful surroundings of A Coruña, starting with lovely sea views and then moving on to mountain and rural areas.

THE ORIGINAL WAY

Those who are interested in walking the same steps as King Alfonso II of Asturias, to get to visit the Apostle's tomb, will certainly choose the Original Way, the first Way to Santiago known.

It starts in Oviedo (Asturias) and its main feature is the beautiful landscape of this area.

Normally, this 261 km route can be done in 15 stages, but if you do not have that amount of days available, the alternative to obtain the Compostela would be to walk it in 5 days from Lugo.

Despite the lovely natural environment, the best about this route are the locals, people who live in theses places and bring friendliness and kindness to the exhausted walkers. This definitively makes the journey to turn into an unforgettable experience.

FISTERRA WAY

Some people think Santiago de Compostela is the end of the Way, the goal and objective every pilgrim has; nevertheless, many others don't think their pilgrimage has finished until they get to the place known as "The End of the World".

Finisterre or Fisterra is a beautiful place where myth and reality join together to create an essential tourist destination. Pilgrims walk 88 km from Santiago to Fisterra.

Once they got to Fisterra Cape, pilgrims used to burn their clothes as sign of purification obtained by walking the Way, as they also contemplated the astonishing sundown from this point. And, if you are lucky enough to have good weather, you shouldn't lose the chance of swimming in Langosteira Beach, as well as enjoying the delicious Galician food.

5 days / 4 nights. Prices from:

SANABRIA WAY

This Way is a diversion from the Silver Route, starting in the village called Granja de Moreruela (Zamora). There, you should certainly visit the ruins of the Monastery of Santa María de Moreruela, the first Cistercian monastery in Spain.

You will be able to visit the beautiful Puebla de Sanabria, known by its medieval historic centre, the fantastic food, and its proximity to the Sanabria Lake (a necessary stop for those who want to enjoy an amazing landscape).

When you arrive at Ourense, feel free to enjoy the main attractions, the natural hot water springs, the Cathedral and the Ponte Vella.

In the last stretch, you will reach A Coruña province and finally get to your final destination Santiago de Compostela.
