COMPANY PROFILE

We are in charge of the fun!

Co-founder Mauricio Arévalo

Shared success resulting from devoting time and creativity to ensure outstanding experiences through the creation of original, one of a kind programs specially tailored to every client certainly comes as no surprise when based on the solid foundation of experience.

It was nearly 10 years ago that Mauricio and Irene resolved to redefine together the core meaning behind incentive trips and focus on their real purpose: to have fun!

Their commitment to carefully listening to every client's needs, and redefine the often-monotonous experience of traveling by offering unique, life-changing adventures full of new, long-lasting memories has become their ultimate goal ever since.

On March 2003, founders Irene Montealegre, Vicepresident & Mauricio Arévalo, President

They’re experts in creating lasting memories!
