NIKOLICA WINES

house wines

In the most celebrated winemaking region in Croatia, Nikolica vineyards spread down the steep slopes of the Pelješac peninsula's southern coast. The south-coast wines from Pelješac are so specific that they were among the first Croatian wines to be named after the precise village they are from, especially Dingač and Postup. Nikolica wines emerged from the centuries-old family tradition of growing grapes and producing wine. These ruby red wines are top-notch, offering fruity aroma and distinctive bouquet.
