The multi-award-winning technology

Discover Evessio Conference

A multi-award-winning company, Evessio specializes in providing leading technology and exceptional customer service to the events industry. Trusted by some of the world's biggest brands, Evessio has gained a global reputation as the all-in-one solution for conference management.

The top 6 reasons why the most prestigious event programs choose Evessio:

1. Create amazing branded websites
2. Simple & slick registration and ticket sales
3. Dedicated speaker portal, providing a superior speakers' experience
4. Managing schedules and agendas efficiently, staying organized and maximizing productivity.
5. Enhance communication and messaging module so you can interact with Speakers or Attendees
6. Reporting and analytics, activity tracking through to financial reporting

Here's how Evessio can deliver success for you too:

Comprehensive Conference Management: Evessio allows you to streamline your event management process and run your event from a single location. Our platform provides fully on-brand event websites and an easy-to-use content management system that empowers you to create extraordinary experiences that differentiate and elevate your brands from your competitors.

Real-time Data Insights: Evessio's powerful suite of tools enables you to track every participant's journey, from starting the event registration through to the final event. With Evessio, you will gain valuable insights from real-time data, allowing you to take timely action and maximize opportunities. These insights ensure that no opportunity is missed, enabling you to make data-driven decisions and optimize your revenue generation strategies.
