Historic building. “Convento de Sancti Spiritus”.

The Convent of Sancti Spiritus is the first female seclusion-cloister convent in the order of San Bernardo in Spain. Founded in the XII century.

It has been home to Santa Teresa de Jesús and Doña Juana "La Loca" since some of the rooms are built over the cells where they slept.

A legend is told that underneath the old Mudéjar Convent of Sancti Spiritus runs water that has curative and holy properties. In 2005 it was confirmed that mineral-medicinal water was under the subsoil.
