BUEMES TRAVEL DMC

We are also official representatives for Carlson Wagonlit Travel in Uruguay and tour operators for shore excursions in our ports enjoyed by cruisers from the major cruise lines of the world.

Our experienced organization has the right means, materials and professional human resources for receiving FIT's and groups. Our transfers and tours are conducted in the most up-to-date vehicles. We have trained an excellent group of professional bilingual tour guides who have made our company a leader in the field.

Since the making of the package until the guests leave our country after their visit, each visitor receives a valuable input as a consequence of all our years of experience, which represents a quality seal that will make your customers appreciate your inclusion of Uruguay on their itinerary.

Our 450 m2 office in Montevideo downtown have given us a wide space to accommodate our both Incoming and Outgoing departments with a staff of 50 employees, along with a meeting room and other facilities. We also have a branch in the residential neighborhood of Carrasco, a new office in the new business area of Buceo neighbourhood, and an Implant Office at the US Embassy with three staff members.

On April 2011, 100% of the firm's stocks were sold to the largest holding group of the local travel industry. The brand, the staff and the company's philosophy has not changed, and continues have as main priority a focus on high quality service.

OUR VISION

To share with the rest of the world our passion for our country and to be able to exceed our clients' expectations.

OUR MISSION

We are dedicated to promoting Uruguay's cultural and natural heritages. We guarantee personalized service and customer care as well as tailor made tours. We are a well-trained and highly motivated team, which is fully identified with the company's values.

OUR VALUES

Trustworthy, Professionalism, Transparency

FIT & Grupos

Planning your next family holidays? Looking for a beach to go on your honeymoon? Trying to learn how to milk a cow and ride horses? Uruguay is your best choice.

A small, friendly nation located only one hour from Buenos Aires, Argentina and 2,5 hours from Sao Paulo, Brazil where distances practically do not exist and all the country's resources are at hand.

Excellent river and ocean beaches with tranquil waters for people looking to relax or waves that will make surfers try them as soon as they see them.

A wide range of Farms (also called Estancias) where you will be able to disconnect yourself from the world and enjoy contact with nature, peace & quiet, bird watching, go hiking, horseback riding, learn how to saddle a horse as well as many other “gaucho activities” or just read a book by the fireplace.

Cultural Tourism and historical places such as Colonia del Sacramento, UNESCO World Heritage since 1996 or Montevideo, Uruguay's capital, are also available for those eager to get to know more about Uruguay's culture and history. Architecture lovers will marvel themselves with Montevideo's eclectic influence, as well as its great amount of museums - many of them free of charge.

Groups and team building activities can also be offered, such as treasure hunts, cooking lessons, races, and fairs, among others.

Clients will be able to choose from one of our fixed packages or contact us for a tailor made request.

Buemes Travel Team TIP: Car rental is recommended to avoid costs of private transfers within different Uruguay cities.

Cultural

For being such a small country, there are many traditions that identify our nation, most of them unknown to visitors.

Rio de la Plata music (cultural heritage shared between the cities of Montevideo and Buenos Aires) refers to the Tango and its sister, the Milonga. Other typical rhythms include Murga, Folklore and Candombe.

In the country of the longest Carnival of the world, any visitant should participate of one of the several carnival parades taking place along February. Other activities include enjoying a Folklore show, visiting the Gaucho Museum in order to get to know more about Uruguay's most famous character, the Gaucho or have a Tango lesson.

Football (soccer)

For Football fans, we offer a guided tour of the Football Museum, located in Centenario Stadium building, where the first World Cup ever took place in 1930. Nowadays the Stadium is a Historical Monument of World's Football. The tour can also include visits to the fields and headquarters of the two most important Uruguayan teams: Club Nacional de Football and Club Atlético Peñarol.

For those visiting Montevideo on the days of football matches, there is the option of going to a game, including tickets, transfers and football-expert guides.

Relocation

Help and assistance for those who have decided to relocate themselves in our country.

Counseling for rental/buying of a property or land, consular services and assistance for getting residence permits/nationalization. General information of the country, its cost of living, statistics and overall advising.

Honeymoon

- Corporate gifts

¿Why hosting an event in Uruguay?

Uruguay is positioned as a strategic point for development of meetings and events on an international level. The combination of modern and historical infrastructure, technical and technological equipment and service quality make Uruguay an attractive destination for those who want to host a high level event.

Moreover, there is a strong support from governmental authorities who have decided to exonerate taxes when confirming international events in our country. This action has generated even a bigger interest among these lands.

Because of its geographical location, Uruguay allows easy access to all Latin American market on by all means: land, sea and air, with excellent daily connections. Montevideo, the country's capital is only 30 minutes from Buenos Aires and less than three hours away from Porto Alegre, Sao Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, Asuncion and Santiago de Chile.

For all these reasons, the diversity of entertainment proposals and the professionalism of those who operate in the field, Uruguay is the perfect place for organizing your next event.

From the making of the package to their departure from our country, each visitor receives a valuable input as a consequence of all our years of experience, which represent a quality seal that will make your customers appreciate your inclusion of Uruguay in their itinerary.
