BIKE TOUR IN RIO

Meet your bike in Copacabana and get your bike and helmet. Board your bike and head to the shores of the Bay of Guanabara, Lapa and Rio's historical center. Making use of the new cycle paths, you'll bike through the lively backstreets of iconic neighborhood Copacabana heading to Botafogo. There you'll pass by Rio's 'celebrity' cemetery, São João Batista, resting place of several Brazilian presidents, writers, singers, actors and also renowned Brazilian architect Oscar Niemeyer. From there you'll pedal to the Bay of Guanabara, along the beach of Flamengo, local of the first European settlement after the discovery of Rio de Janeiro. After Flamengo the route continues to the historical center of the city, with stops at Cinelândia and Lapa, well known for its nightlife and the `Steps of Selarón', 250 steps covered in more than 2000 tiles from different countries. On the way back you cycle along the paths winding through Flamengo Park, designed by famous Brazilian landscaper Burle Marx. The last stretch of the tour will pass along the world famous Copacabana beach and it's historic Copacabana Palace hotel and then you'll head back to the starting point, where your tour ends.

Now it's time to turn your hand to cooking your new favorite dish. Depending on the day, you will either learn the national dish, Feijoada, a Black Bean Pork Stew (Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday), or the Northeastern Seafood Dish, Moqueca, made with white fish (Monday, Wednesday, Friday). Both will make your mouth water and your family and friends happy when you invite them over for dinner in the future. Your professional cook is a fun-loving, entertaining, Brazilian woman who is a pleasure to be with and learn from. Enjoy Caipirinhas, an appetizer, main dish, and a desert! The class will be approximately 4-hours and is sure to leave you satisfied.

BRAZILIAN FLAVORS

A 6-hour walking tour which takes guests off the tourist trail and into the neighborhoods of Lapa, Glória, Flamengo and Laranjeiras. Guests taste Amazonian fruit juices and street food dishes, visit a street market, bars and some really old restaurants - with a big meal and plenty of juices, beers and caipirinhas. The route also includes really cool non-food stops (including street art, the Selarón Steps and the Lapa Arches). The pace is relaxed, with plenty of breaks and stops along the way. As well as being a fun and delicious introduction to Brazilian food,

SURF CLASS

Rio de Janeiro and surroundings offer some nice waves on beautiful beaches, perfect for surf lessons! Our surf tours in Rio de Janeiro are oriented by local weather forecast and our knowledge on the best places to surf. Our guide will pick you up early in the morning and you will have 2 hours of surfing lessons with full equipment, usually in Recreio or Macumba Beaches. For beginners, we offer personal surf classes. For the experienced, free-surf tours!

PEDRA DO TELEGRAFO / TELEGRAFO ROCK

At 1,161 feet (354 meters) high, Pedra do Telégrafo, offers sweeping views of wild beaches, Tijuca forest, Barra da Tijuca and the famous Restinga da Marambaia, almost 43km long white sand strip with restrict access. You can stand on top of or hang from a large, sharp rock, which isn't actually very far off the ground, your camera angle can make it appear like you're a daredevil about to fall down the mountainside. The best selfie ever! On the way back we will drive by Grumari, Prainha, Macumba and Recreio dos Bandeirantes beaches.

BRAZILIAN PASSION: CARNIVAL & SOCCER

Immerse yourself in the culture of Brazil on a guided tour to some of the city's cultural landmarks. Learn about Carnival and classic samba at the famous Sambadrome, where the parade takes place, and the "City of Samba," where top samba schools practice. Then visit the iconic Maracana Stadium and Museum for the Brazilian Soccer.

NIGHTLIFE OF RIO AS A LOCAL

Rio de Janeiro is one of the nightlife capitals of the world but, for visitors, it can be difficult to cut through the tourist traps and find the places loved by locals. This guided tour takes you around the city's hottest venues (as well as a few less-visited spots) for an authentic taste of Rio nightlife and introduction to the rhythms of samba de raiz, forró pé de serra and bossa nova.

CACHAÇA TOUR - DRINKS, FUN AND BEACH!

Cachaça is Brazil's national drink and the key ingredient in Caipirinha cocktails. On this tour, visit a traditional Cachaça factory, learn how the spirit is created from distilled sugarcane juice, and sample a variety of different Cachaças. In the afternoon, enjoy free time to swim and sunbathe on the beautiful Grumari and Prainha beaches, before returning to the city.
