Portugal and the Iberian Peninsula

A unique paradise of wines, fine cuisine and traditional fare

Portugal is a largely undiscovered treasure-trove for wine & food lovers. To discover Portuguese cuisine is to journey into our eight-century-old culinary culture as you partake in a great variety of flavors and foods in a variety of environments - from typical village taverns to elegant restaurants where great chefs employ their creativity to combine tradition and innovation.

As you visit the Iberian Peninsula, venturing into Portugal and Spain, let yourself be seduced by the biodiversity of the region, the uniqueness of the Mediterranean diet, the tantalizing Atlantic culinary delicacies, incredible variety of wines and native dishes. All year round, let us guide you on your journey through gourmet heaven. Live life to the full!

Authentic Portugal

A unique country like none other

» 35 winemaking regions from North to South, dating back to Roman times
» The oldest demarcated and controlled winemaking region in the world, the Douro Winemaking Region, home of the Port Wine since 1756
» Wines that are consistently awarded a maximum 100 points!
» The first country ever to officially recognize Gastronomy as an integral part of its Cultural Heritage
» One of the Great Wine Capitals of the world
» The finest and richest selection of fish and seafood in Europe
» An admirable wealth of wines with distinct characteristics, produced from native Portuguese vines you will not find elsewhere
» A Slow Food Country by choice and tradition and much more to tickle your fancy!

Incentive

Gourmet Incentive Programs: a unique and lifelong experience!

Vinitur has many years' experience in creating exclusive incentives for brands and successful companies worldwide. Whether you are hosting a small VIP group or a large event, we offer exceptional programs involving creative and gourmet experiences to please the most demanding participants.

Thrill your guests with a helicopter flight over the majestic scenery of the mythical Douro vineyards. Strengthen team spirit aboard the Grand Epicurean Odyssey. Inspire with a team building event in the historical atmosphere of a traditional village. Motivate and revitalize with a cooking class in the kitchens of a medieval convent. Encourage creativity with an entertaining Team Cocktail Party. Fall in love on a romantic escapade through lush countryside, behind the wheel of a Ferrari.

Dazzle with glamour at the Jackpot ViniClub – the original wine Casino.

The success of your incentive will exceed your guests' expectations.

Meetings and Events

Creators of memorable events

Surprise everyone and stimulate their five senses at your next event, whether a private meeting or a large convention. Over the past 15 years, we have created successful professional events in the vibrant atmosphere of our cities or out in the spectacular countryside, in remarkable wine estates and their amazing lodges, palaces and castles, design spaces and art galleries. From planning to quality control, your every need is supervised each step of the way by a Vinitur Event-Organizer: choice of the venue, social program and gala event, accommodation, team building, logistics and catering, technology and design, impact assessment and evaluation. New and novel ideas to charm your audience!

Wine and Food Travel

The experts' choice

Vinitur invites you to indulge yourself in an exploration of genuine flavors at the hands of one of our team of experts. Our exclusive partnerships across Portugal and Spain, in the Douro, Dão, Alentejo, Rioja, Cataluña, Andaluzia and other regions, form the basis for our range of exquisite private moments for the most demanding connoisseurs. We will tailor your program to your wishes and organize Wine Master Classes, olive oil tastings with professionals, visits to cheese producers and other specialties, culinary activities in a traditional kitchen or with a renowned Chef, and much more. Complement your enjoyment with a selection from the Vinitur collection of carefully planned experiences: a picnic by the vineyards, a barbecue on the beach, a tapas lunch in a typical tavern, tasting the most wonderful gastronomic delights in the finest gourmet restaurants.
