Zadar is both, an atmospheric time machine and an open-air museum. Here on display, you will find some of the most beautiful monuments of architecture and cultural heritage of the eastern Adriatic coast. No other city in the world boasts such a beautiful sunset, a sea organ, or so many historical differences wrapped into the irresistible Mediterranean charm.

N N

Nin is a small town located on a small island situated in the middle of a shallow lagoon. The old centre of the town is connected to the mainland by two stone bridges. Nin has a fascinating history, and presently, it is a beautiful place to visit.
