Zadar City

Zadar is a historic city on the Adriatic coast, located in central Dalmatia. It is known for its thousand-year-old heritage, which includes Roman ruins, medieval churches and Venetian walls. In the heart of the city is the 9th-century Church of St. Donatus and the Roman Forum, while modern architecture brings unique attractions such as the Sea Organ and the Greeting to the Sun, which combine art, nature and technology.

Zadar is a lively city with numerous restaurants, cafes and local markets, and its seaside promenade offers unforgettable sunsets. It is well connected by land, sea and air, and is an ideal starting point for excursions to national parks such as Kornati, Plitvice and Paklenica.

The combination of history, culture and natural beauty makes Zadar an unmissable destination on the Croatian coast.

National parks and nature parks

A stay at Hotel Pinija provides you with the perfect opportunity to explore incredible natural beauty. Use your holiday in Petrčane to visit one of the five national parks in the area – Kornati, Paklenica, Plitvice Lakes, Krka and Northern Velebit – or two nature parks, Lake Vrana and Telašćica. Discover stunning landscapes, crystal clear sea, pristine lakes and impressive waterfalls that will leave you breathless.

Zadar Region

The Zadar region, located in the heart of the eastern Adriatic, offers endless possibilities for a dream vacation. The cultural, sports and economic center of the region is the City of Zadar, while the cities of Nin, Pag and Biograd, as well as the entire hinterland of the region, offer top-notch eno-gastronomic experiences. Nature and adventure lovers can enjoy the crystal clear sea, beaches and hidden coves of numerous islands, and the beauty of national parks.

ABOUT US

Hotel Pinija

The hotel was built in 1970 on a natural peninsula, in a pine forest, after which it was named – Pinija. Due to the quality of the hotel facilities and beach, it quickly became recognized among domestic and foreign guests. For the local population in the summer months, it is one of the most favorite bathing places in the region.

Ownership by the company Intermod d.o.o. ensures the hotel continuous modernization with the aim of improving the offer and services, while the long-standing family tradition guarantees a warm and personal approach to each guest.

Since 2001, the hotel has been completely modernized and a sports and recreation area with an indoor swimming pool and fitness center was built.

In 2008, the hotel was upgraded to a 4* category and a new outdoor pool was built. In 2015, a new Wellness & Spa center was built.

In 2019, the hotel restaurant with a terrace was renovated and a sunbathing area by the pool was built.

The year 2023 was marked by a new investment cycle in which the lobby, reception, aperitif bar with terrace and animation room were renovated.

In 2024, a significant investment began that will mark the further growth and development of the hotel - the construction of the Zadar Congress & Event Center with two multifunctional halls.

We are constantly investing in the future and raising standards to provide our guests with the ultimate experience.
