City Andreas Quartier

A seminarhouse with history - re-interpreted especially for you.

In the heart of Düsseldorf between the old town and the business district you find the City Andreas Quartier in the old but new created building of the Court House. A trendy atmosphere which satisfies and surpasses all your expectations for your meetings and events.

Escape from the city hurly-burly and discover uniqueness, innovative solutions for your meeting rooms, high-tech equipment, homemade cuisine and an all-inclusive package in which all services are already included. Efficiency, professionalism, personal support, a familiar atmosphere and comfort offer your participants a variety of possibilities to make your meeting a success.
We are looking forward to support you during your seminars.

The heart of the house: the generous room „Freispruch“, located on the 5th floor, offers you a breathtaking view on Düsseldorf‘s rooftops. The perfect and unique ‚ambience‘ to host your galas, presentations or cocktail dinners up to 150 people.

Our reason for being

With the creation of Châteauform' in 1996, Jacques Horovitz build the foundations for the city locations concept: the love for our customers and the adaptation of all business models to their needs. In 2008, thanks to our customer feedbacks we had the chance to develop the brand ‚Châteauform' City' after the etablishement of our brand ‚The home of seminars' was yet a success. Near to company headquarters and offices with an easy and fast access, innovative and trendy. With four houses in Paris and now also in Germany, we created special places which are transfoming your meetings into a unique experience.
