Our top 10 favorites on "WHY Belgrade?"

1. You've probably never been before.
2. Less than 3 hours flight away from any major European city.
3. No track record in terrorist-linked attacks of any kind.
4. Not yet overrun by mass tourism.
   What we mean is, no selfie-sticks popping up everywhere.
5. "Too much history per square mile", according to NY Times.
6. Top-notch hotel properties at just about ridiculous prices.
7. Food is our religion and a way of life.
8. Locals tend to treat you like their close relatives.
9. Every night is Friday night. Seriously, google this.
10. Budget friendly – but without ever feeling cheap.
