Culinary and artistic experience

- We will travel to El Sexmo, a small village near Cártama, where we will be welcomed by Raquel de Luna, a renowned flamenco dancer.
- Upon arrival, the group will receive a warm welcome at her countryside home, surrounded by nature and tranquility. Participants will enjoy traditional appetizers, soft drinks, beer, and coffee in a relaxed and cozy atmosphere.

Traditional Sangria Workshop and Paella Contest

- The group will start by collectively preparing sangria, learning an authentic recipe and some tips to achieve the perfect flavor.
- After that, they will split into teams for a fun paella contest, creating different recipes with the help of Raquel and her family. While some cook, others will enjoy tapas, sangria, and live music.
- Finally, everyone will taste the paellas and vote for their favorite, celebrating gastronomy and teamwork in a relaxed and enjoyable atmosphere.

Private Show

- A private flamenco show full of passion and artistry will be offered, immersing the group in the essence of flamenco. There will be interactive moments for those who wish to join in with clapping and footwork, all in an authentic setting that blends gastronomy, culture, and Andalusian tradition.
