

Discover the Wonders of Uzbekistan

ITINERARY 3 13 DAYS / 12 NIGHTS

DAY 1. ORIGIN – TASHKENT, UZBEKISTAN
Arrival in Tashkent and breakfast at the hotel. Guided tour: Independence Square, Khast-Imam Complex, Chorsu Bazaar, and a walk through Sayilgoh Park. Half-board meals at local restaurants, enjoying traditional Uzbek cuisine.

DAY 2. TASHKENT – KOKAND – FERGANA
Today we continue our journey through the scenic Tian Shan mountains to the beautiful Fergana Valley. This valley has long been an intriguing destination for foreign travelers to meet, converse, and observe local life –since tourism is still relatively undeveloped, there's a unique chance to witness the real Uzbekistan. We arrive in the ancient city of Kokand, once a major crossroads of the Great Silk Road. Visits include the Khudoyar Khan Palace, Juma Mosque, Dahmai Shahon (Royal Tomb), and the Rishtan Ceramics House.

DAY 3. FERGANA – MARGILAN – TASHKENT –
After breakfast, we visit the famous city of Margilan in Fergana: the Silk Factory and Margilan Bazaar. We then return to Tashkent, the "city of bread." On the way, we'll have a chance to stop at the valley's bread market and enjoy a variety of traditional and sweet breads. Upon arrival in Tashkent .

DAY 4. TASHKENT – URGENCH – KHIVA
Early morning flight to Urgench, followed by transfer to Khiva. Guided tour of Ichan Qala: Muhammad Amin Khan Madrasa, Kunya Ark Fortress, Juma Mosque, and Tash Hovli Palace. Half-board meals at local restaurants. Discover the rich history of Khiva.

DAY 5. KHIVA
Guided tour of ·
TOPRAK KALA (3rd–4th centuries)
KIZIL (RED) KALA (1st–2nd centuries)
AYAZ KALA (4th–3rd B.C.E centuries)

DAY 6. KHIVA – BUKHARA
Drive from Khiva to Bukhara (450 km, approx. 6 hours). Lunch at a desert restaurant. Upon arrival, exploration of Bukhara's historic center. Visits include Lyabi Hauz Complex and the domed Oriental Bazaars (16th–17th centuries). Half-board meals at local restaurants. Note: flight or train options to Bukhara may be available depending on travel date.

DAY 7. BUKHARA
Further exploration of Bukhara: Ismail Samani Mausoleum, Chashma Ayub Mausoleum, Bolo Hauz Mosque, the Ark Citadel, and the madrasas of Ulugbek and Abdulaziz Khan. Enjoy local cuisine with half-board meals in typical restaurants.

DAY 8. BUKHARA – NURATA – AYDARKUL LAKE (YURT CAMP)
Today we travel to Nurata, one of Uzbekistan's oldest cities. We'll visit the ancient Nur Fortress, the Grand Mosque, and the mysterious Nurata Spring. After a delicious lunch in a local home, we continue toward Lake Aydarkul, located in the Kyzylkum Desert. Known as the "sea of the desert," this place offers opportunities for swimming (in summer) and relaxing in a unique natural environment. We end the day at a yurt camp, experiencing nomadic life, camel rides, and a spectacular desert sunset.
Dinner included!

DAY 9. AYDARKUL LAKE – NURATA MOUNTAINS – HAYAT VILLAGE
The Nurata Mountains, located near the Kyzylkum Desert and Aydarkul Lake, are a perfect destination for ecotourism. In the morning, we travel to Hayat Village, known for its untouched nature, warm hospitality, and breathtaking landscapes. During our stay, we'll explore ancient petroglyphs, experience rural life, and observe diverse wildlife–including Severtzov's wild sheep and desert monitors. You'll also enjoy walking along nature trails, visiting Lake Fazilman, and relaxing in this unique and peaceful corner of Uzbekistan.
Breakfast, lunch, and dinner included.
