Captain Said overseas the Sales & Technical funtions, infusing his profound knowledge and experience into every sea trip. Zuwaina, as the Managing Partner, brings her vision and leadership to every aspect of the operations. Everyday, they lead their trips alongside their diverse 10 staff members who are skilled, experienced and committed to the company.

SUSTAINABILITY:

At Star Of The Sea, we are proudly recognized for our commitment to preserving Omani traditions and customs, particulary the rich maritime heritage that defines our nation. We are dedicated to passing down our unique sea-faring skills and knowledge to the younger generation ensuring that these timeless traditions continue to thrive.

Our company plays a vital role in supporting the local community. We provide meaningful opportunities for employment, from local women who prepare the authentic, delicious food served on our cruises to the fishermen and part-time staff who assist with our beach camping trips. By sustaining the livelihoods of those who work with us, we contribute to the well-being of Omani families and empower our youth, helping to build a stronger, more vibrant community.

SAFETY STANDARDS:

Your safety is our top priority. We adhere to the highest safety standards, fully approved by the relevant authorities, including the Royal Oman Police. Our commitment to safety is reflected in the comprehensive precautions we take for every cruise. Each boat/dhow is equipped with essential safety gear, including advanced communication tools, fire extinguishers, GPS systems, and flashlights, all meticulously maintained to ensure optimal performance.

Before each trip, we take several procedures to ensure a safe sea trip. We make it a point to contact the Weather Forecast Centre. We also utilize a meteorological app to monitor sea and wind conditions, and consult with local fishermen who have already navigated the waters in the in the early morning. These extensive checks enable us to offer not just an exceptional cruise experience, but also peace of mind.
