MAESTRO ANDREA BOCELLI IN “ANDREA CHENIER”

Teatro del Silenzio, Lajatico

13th Edition

July 2018: 28 (20h15)

Andrea Bocelli returns to his greatest passion, proposing the opera to which he is most emotionally attached: the first opera that he heard and learned in his life, the most loved one, the one from which he sang and recorded his first aria at the age of eight, that is recorded and still listenable today. Andrea Chénier is the opera of love that triumphs, it is the opera of the "tenor": in fact, the protagonist is almost always on stage and interprets famous, moving and particularly loved pages by the public. Once again, in the enchanting scenery of Lajatico, in the Tuscan hills, it is possible to experience the exceptional experience of listening to the voice of Maestro Andrea Bocelli in the land where he was born and raised accompanied by a symphonic orchestra, a choir and an artistic cast of international profile.

THE EVENT

Music by Umberto Giordano

July 2018: 28 (20h15)

Andrea Bocelli returns to his greatest passion, proposing the opera to which he is most emotionally attached: the first opera that he heard and learned in his life, the most loved one, the one from which he sang and recorded his first aria at the age of eight, that is recorded and still listenable today. Andrea Chénier is the opera of love that triumphs, it is the opera of the "tenor": in fact, the protagonist is almost always on stage and interprets famous, moving and particularly loved pages by the public. Once again, in the enchanting scenery of Lajatico, in the Tuscan hills, it is possible to experience the exceptional experience of listening to the voice of Maestro Andrea Bocelli in the land where he was born and raised accompanied by a symphonic orchestra, a choir and an artistic cast of international profile.
