NORTHERN TANZANIA 8-NIGHTS

DESTINATION
TANZANIA

Ex-German and British colony, Tanzania is located in East Africa by the Indian ocean and covers (365,756 sq mi) making it the largest country in Eastern Africa.

As information, the name of the country comes from “Tan” for Tanganyika and Zan from Zanzibar.

Tanzania is an East African country known for its vast wilderness areas as the plains of Serengeti National Park, Ngorongoro Crater, Kilimanjaro National Park, homed to Africa’s highest mountain.

But Tanzania is also tropical islands of Zanzibar with a marine park home to whale sharks and coral reefs

Away from the crowds and amongst vast spaces every corner turn, offers a wow factor either of nature or animal species or birds.

About Arusha

Nestled at the foot of Mount Meru, Arusha is Tanzania's safari and events capital, often called the "Geneva of Africa."
Gateway to the northern safari circuit and close to Mount Kilimanjaro, it's a must-visit destination for travelers worldwide

Kilimanjaro International Airport

Kilimanjaro International is located 35km from Moshi and 45km from Arusha. The airport is operated by Kilimanjaro Airports Development Company (KADCO), a fully-government owned company that manages and develops KIA to reflect the beauty and jaws dropping attractions that exist in the northern Tanzania tourism circuit. The airport has gained the tag “gateway to Africa’s wildlife heritage”. The tag emerged notably and gained currency due to the exceptional role of the airport to the tourism sector for its airport operations and infrastructure management.

Airlines that fly to JRO are:
Air Tanzania, Air France, British Airways, Emirates Air, KLM, Kenya Airways, Lufthansa, Qatar Airways Precision Air, Swiss Airlines, South African Airways, and Turkish Airlines (Most of them daily).

Upon arrival, passengers must pass through immigration control (a visa is required for all travellers) before they get their luggage and customs control which is minimal for tourists. One should count an hour before finish wth the formalities.

For all departures from Kilimanjaro Airport, a check-in must be done at least 2 hours before flight departure.
