Game Drive in Serengeti National Park

Serengeti National Park is a large national park in northern Tanzania, was established in 1940 and contains over 1,500,000 hectares (3,700,000 acres) of virgin savanna.

The name "Serengeti" is an approximation of the word siringet used by the Maasai people for the area, which means "the place where the land runs on forever". It covers an area of about 14763sq kms, with various vegetation, grassy plains, savannah acacia lands, wooden hills, and mountains which are the backdrops for an extraordinary concentration of animals that reaches its peak during the wildebeest migration.

The Serengeti is well known for the largest annual animal migration in the world with 2 million blue wildebeest, 250,000 zebra, smaller herds of Thomson's gazelle and eland but also known as a home to the largest lion population in Africa.

The best time to see the wildebeest migration is from December to July, and the best time to see predators is from June to October. Serengeti is among of the world's remaining natural wildlife refuges. It is equal in size to Northern Ireland.

Hot air Balloon in Serengeti National Park

You will be picked up at 5:00 am and transferred to the balloon launch site at the Park. Here you will meet your pilot, receive a briefing and watch the inflation of your balloon. At dawn it takes off, rising as the sun rises and floats whichever direction the winds of the morning take it.

Your pilot can precisely control the altitude of your balloon: sometimes flying at treetop height, sometimes lower, offering a unique perspective and great photographic opportunities of the wildlife below. At other times our pilot may ascend to 400 meters or more to see the enormity and wonderful panorama of the plains. The flight is about one hour depending on conditions.

You will celebrate your landing with an excellent sparkling wine, before sitting down to a full English breakfast prepared and served in the bush in 'Out of Africa' style with bone china, linen table clothes, etc. After breakfast you receive your Balloon certificate and later meet up with your safari drivers ready to continue your day's activities.

Bush Dinner in Serengeti National Park

Sit down for a torchlit barbecue dinner in the middle of Serengeti National Park, sharing stories around the bonfire and gazing up at the stars under the watchful protection of Maasai tribespeople.

Stone Town City Tour

It takes around 2 hours and a half to explore the fantastic history of this magical town.

As a cosmopolitan archipelago, Zanzibar, and mainly its capital Stone Town, withhold a wide cultural mosaic combined with African traditions. Such cultural mix is mainly due to the huge amount of merchants that have stopped in Zanzibar port throughout history during their commercial routes.

The Arab influence is predominant in the urban design and architecture of Stone Town, where the most impressive and admirable residential structures in town are the large Arab houses with a central courtyard (Patio) dated around the 19th century.

Our well educated and experienced guides will feed you with detailed information about the history of Zanzibar and the historical buildings you will visit during the excursion, such as The Old Portuguese fort, the House of Wonders 12 (currently being renovated), former Sultan Palace, Roman Catholic Cathedral, Old dispensary and so many other buildings which reflect the variety of cultural influence that has shaped this magnificent city.

Sunset Taarab Dhow Cruise

Embark at 4:30 PM for a unique cultural cruise aboard a traditional dhow off the coast of Zanzibar.
For two hours, let yourself be carried away by the gentle sunset, local snacks, refreshing drinks, and above all, the captivating rhythms of taarab and kidumbaki music, performed live by artists from the Dhow Countries Music Academy.

On the programme:

- A lively introduction to the history of taarab and kidumbaki
- Immersive live music performances
- A participatory African drumming workshop

Friendly and full of rhythm, this cruise offers a beautiful artistic and festive escape, perfect for discovering the musical soul of Zanzibar in a magical setting.

Dinner at the Mbweni Ruins Zanzibar

DINING IN HISTORY
MBWENI RUINS – AN ATMOSPHERIC EXPERIENCE

Set among the weathered stones of a 19th-century mission, the Mbweni Ruins offer a distinctive setting for a private dinner or special event. Just a few minutes from Stone Town, this historic site combines coastal charm with a quiet sense of grandeur.

As the sun sets, the ruins take on a new life. Discreet lighting highlights the structure's original features, while the surrounding gardens bring a soft, natural backdrop. The ambience is calm, open-air, and rich in character—ideal for a dinner that's out of the ordinary without trying too hard.

Park Hyatt Zanzibar handles the catering with the same attention to detail found in its hotel restaurant. The menu is inspired by local ingredients and island traditions: seafood grilled to perfection, Swahili-spiced meats, fresh produce, and refined touches that elevate the whole experience. Every dish is well-balanced, beautifully plated, and thoughtfully paired with drinks.

Whether it's an intimate dinner or a stylish group gathering, dining at Mbweni Ruins is about enjoying good food in a place that tells a story, no extra frills, just authenticity and atmosphere.
