GRAND HOTEL SAN MARINO
GROUP

GHSM Group

Hospitality in the World's most ancient Republic

The Republic San Marino

is worth a visit for many reasons, let’s discover the main 5 …plus 1!

1. HISTORY, ART AND CULTURE

The Republic of San Marino is the most ancient republic in the World (it dates back to 301 a.C.) and is part of Unesco World Heritage since 2008

The atmosphere of a magic place suspended between history and legend can be experienced all around the historical center, dotted with monuments, museums, places of cultural, historical and religious interest, such as:

The three towers

Built between X and XIII century to protect San Marino from the assaults of families who governed the nearby territories, the 3 towers (Guaita, Cesta and Montale) are nowadays the most acknowledged symbol of the Republic

Basilica of Saint Marinus

The main Church of San Marino Republic is dedicated to the patron saint of the Republic, who founded San Marino community.
His remains are preserved in this holy place.

Piazza della Libertà

This is the heart of the country's institutional life, since here stands the Public Palace, built in 1894 and restored on the occasion of its centenary by the world-famous architect Gae Aulenti.
This beautiful building has been the house of Parliament since its birth.

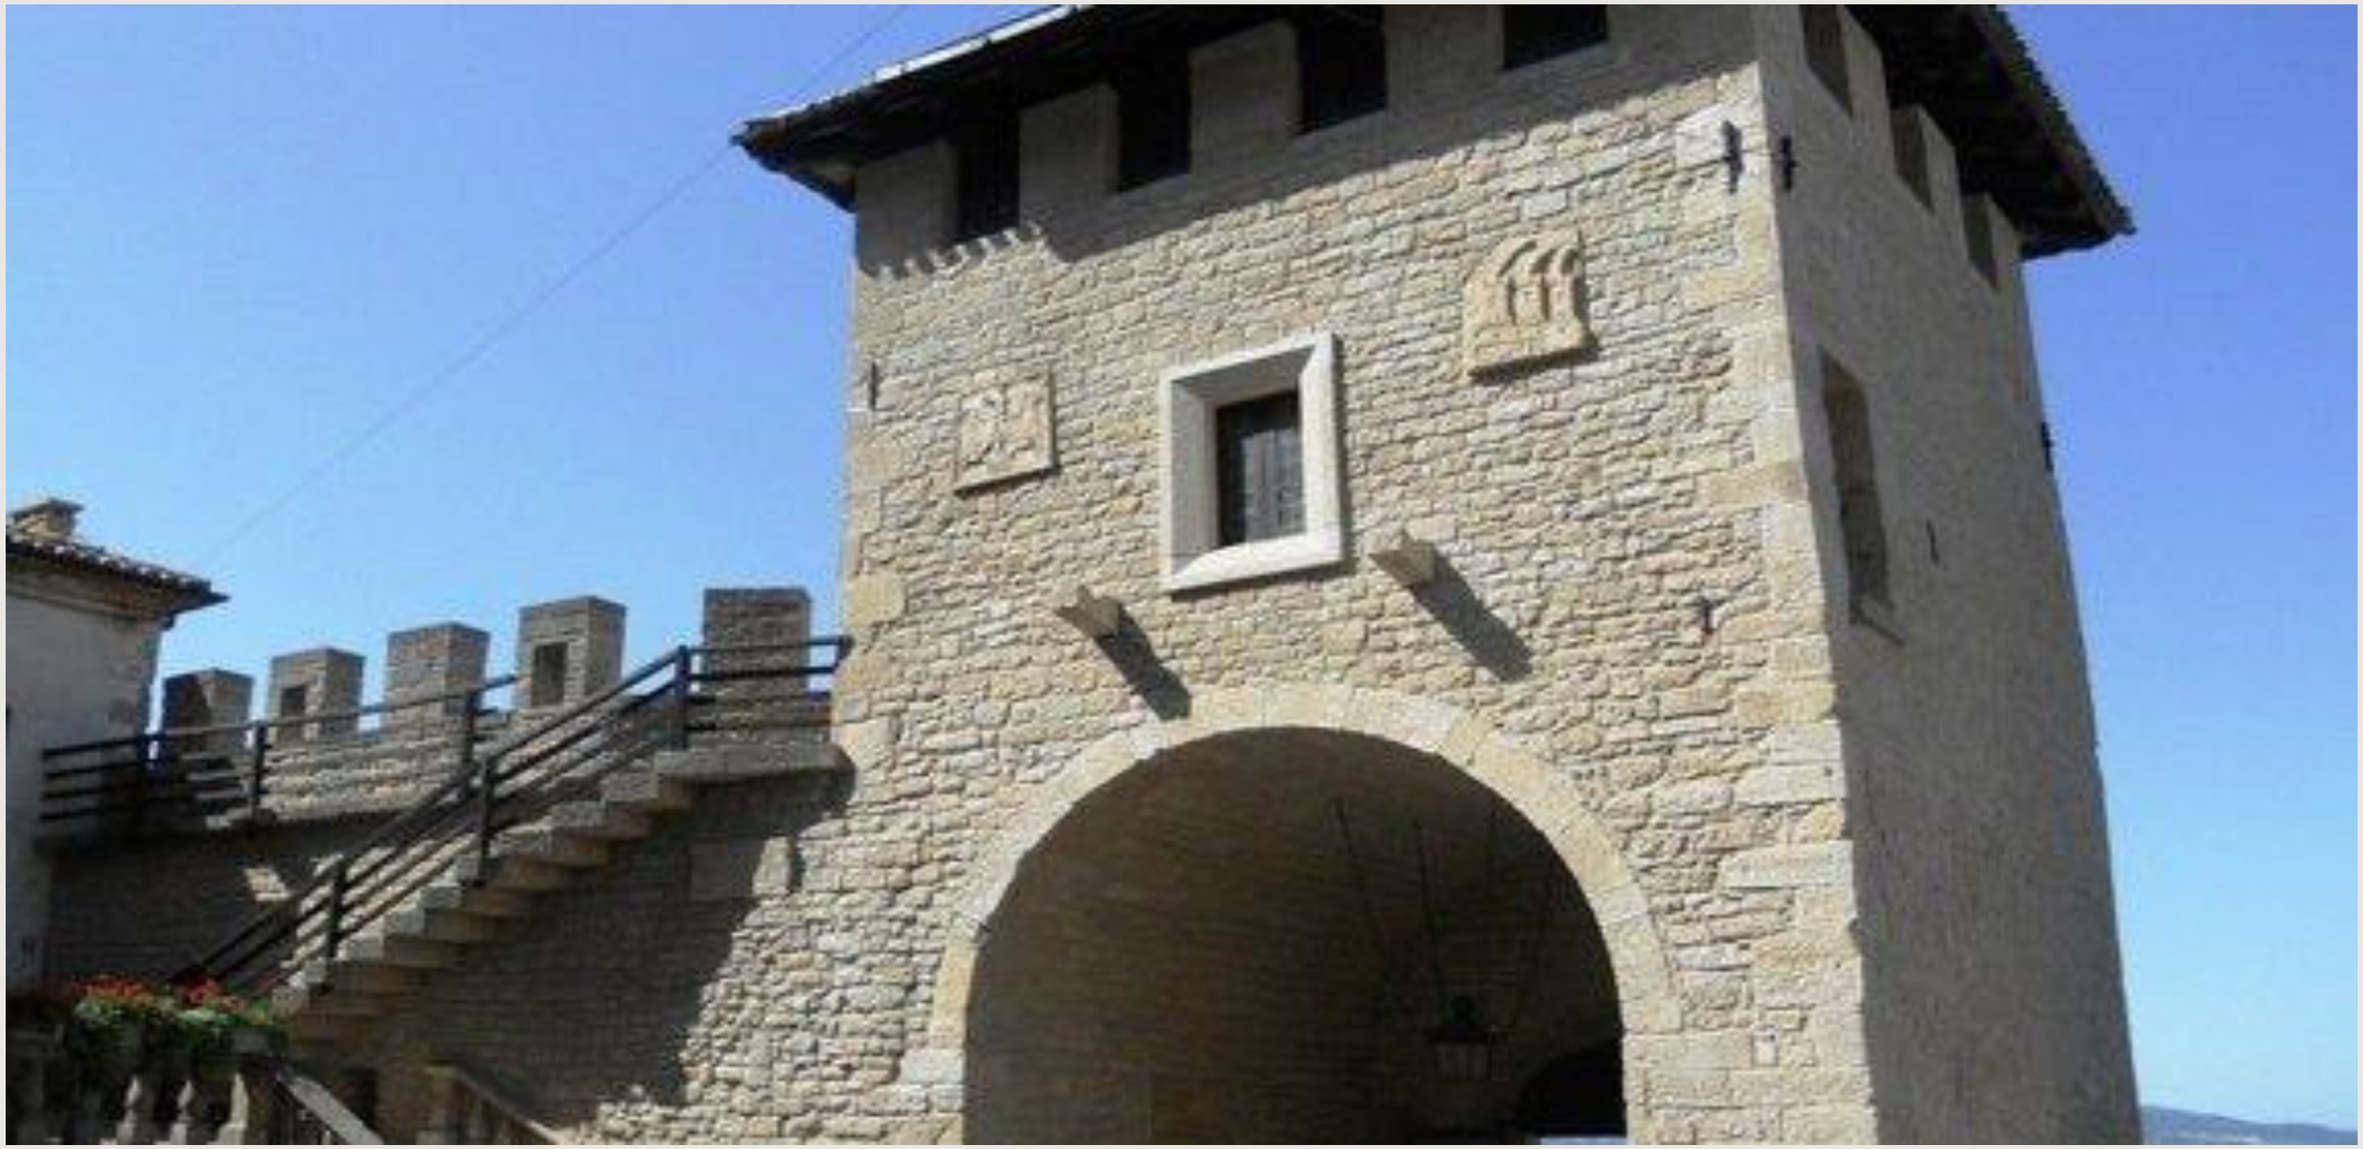

Cava dei Balestrieri

The cave was opened during XIX century to mine the stone needed to restore the Public Palace,
Nowadays it is an evocative place where traditional events are held, such as the crossbowmen and flag-wavers shows on public holidays,

Gate of Saint Francis

Built in 1361, it is the main access to the historical center, surrounded by Medieval walls,
Near the gate we find Saint Francis Church and the Pinacoteca (art gallery)
Dating back to XIV century,

Guided tours of the historical center

We can organize guided sightseeing tours with different itineraries departing from the Hotel of accommodation. In the minimum time of 1 hour, guides can escort tourists to discover the highlights of the historical center also in Medieval dresses to let people imagine the past's splendor.

2. EXCURSIONS IN THE NEARBY

located in Central Italy and only 10 km far from the Adriatic Sea, San Marino represents an ideal stop along the itinerary from Venice to Florence or from Bologna heading South

San Marino is the ideal crossroad for excursion trips to the most famous cities in the nearby Emilia Romagna and Marche regions, such as:

Rimini (24 km)

Capital city of the “Riviera Romagnola”, Rimini boasts beautiful monuments that testify to its glorius past dating back not just to its birth during the Romans (268 b.C.), but also to every age of its history,
Rimini is worth a visit also for its entertainment organization.

Santarcangelo di Romagna (25 km)

This Medieval village extends all around its beautiful fortress that can be reached strolling along panoramic paths facing on the Riviera.
The historical center of Santarcangelo di R. is worth a visit also for its peculiar caverns, caved in tuff, whose origin is still a mistery.

Verucchio (20 km)

The story of Verucchio is ancient and tightly tied to the Malatesta family, who governed for centuries on Romagna region,
From Verucchio beautiful fortress you can admmire a breathtaking view but most of all it is worth a visit because of its fascinating atmosphere.

San Leo (20 km)

This fascinating old town in the heart of Montefeltro area is perfectly preserved and can be visited in every part.
It is one of the most beautiful scenery in Italy for its art, history and Wonderful panoramic views on the nearby territory.

Gradara (40 km)

The fame of Gradara is connected to Dante's verses, telling the story of the unlucky lovers Paolo and Francesca in The Divine Comedy,
The atmosphere and views of this old town are enchanting, especially admired from the ramparts around the ancient walls.

Urbino (50 km)

The “ideal city of the Renaissance” rises on a hill between two valleys. The Palazzo Ducale is the symbol of the city but Urbino is well known as the birthplace of Raffaello Sanzio, world famous Italian architect and Painter of the Reinassance age.

Ravenna (55 km)

This Byzantine city, capital city of Italy during barbarian age, lies along the sea and is house of 8 different monuments classified by Unesco as World Heritage.
This city captures tourists with its magical and unique atmosphere.

3. FOOD & WINE TASTING

San Marino and the nearby regions are world-famous for their excellent culinary tradition and fine wines production

Caffè Titano

In the heart of the old town, the ideal place to organize an aperitif at the end of a sightseeing tour of the historical center.
A buffet of local cold cuts and cheeses can be prepared to accompany a tasting of fine wines from San Marino and the nearby

La Terrazza Ristorante

A breathtaking panoramic view and a privileged location in the old town are the ideal setting to enjoy a dinner with the authentic traditional cuisine. Home-made pasta, bread and piadina, meat from local farms and a great variety of wines from the nearby and from Italy to taste

Museum of Rural Life and Traditions "House of Fabrica"

A little museum located in a beautiful park with views of the historical center. Besides knowing more about past local rural life, guests can taste products by “Terra di San Marino”, prepared according to traditional methods and recipes accompanied with local wines

Podere Lesignano

A farm not far from the old town where it is possible to experience a tour through vineyards and olive groves and taste a selection of preserves and typical wines produced by the farm.
Guests can take part to workshops and learn how to prepare piadina

Fico Eataly World

A journey from field to fork: a unique and genuine experience to watch Italian food being made right before your eyes.
A place to learn, taste and discover, the first agri-food park in the World

4. OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

The landscape of San Marino Republic is ideal for practising many different sports. Outdoor activities' lovers will find their paradise here

Trekking

Various paths departing from the historical center lead to breathtaking corners and some almost unknown places of the territory of the Republic. Pure and unspoilt areas, natural jewels and ancient monuments to discover escorted by expert local guides

Cycling

Tours of different levels and a multifaceted territory to discover by bicycle or even e-bike for less experts.
A group of hotels grouped in San Marino Cycling Experience to welcome cyclists with the state-of-the-art services and experienced guides

Flying over San Marino

An unforgettable adrenaline experience to discover San Marino from a brand new perspective.
The Mount Titano and the surrounding area is even more wonderful when admired from the sky

5. SHOPPING & RELAX

Boutiques, malls and small souvenir shops make San Marino the place to be for shopping addicted. In the old town we also find a oasis for wellness...

TuttoSanMarino Card

Discounts for shopping in the old town, special prices for museums and tourist attractions, promotions on sightseeing tours and cableway tickets. All these services and many other offers for services in San Marino reserved for tourists staying at local Hotels.

Maurice Mességué SPA and Beauty Farm

Wellness area, relaxing massages, aesthetic treatments and weight-loss clinic in the heart of the old town.
A peaceful haven perfect to take care of oneself's body and mind according to Maurice Mességué's philosophy: "Nature is always right".

+1. WEDDINGS IN SAN MARINO

The latest law makes it easy to get married in San Marino and weddings celebrated here are recognized in all the main Countries of the World.

Locations for the ceremony

Public locations such as Orti Borghesi and monuments such as Cava dei Balestrieri, First and Second Tower can be reserved to celebrate weddings. Enchanting places and breathtaking atmosphere for a day that will never be forgotten.

Wedding celebration

In the heart of the old town, a wide choice of restaurants to choose the perfect location to celebrate a wedding party.
Personalized atmosphere, menus and entertainment,
always facing beautiful panoramic views.

Wedding organization

A variety of dedicated services and a team of experts to organize an impeccable day without any thought or paperwork for bride and groom.
Wedding planners, photographers, hair-stylists and make up artists for the perfect wedding.

GHSM Group

an expert team always at your disposal and a network of operators and suppliers to suit every tourist's needs,

Taylor-made offers for Groups and Individual travellers

GRAND HOTEL SAN MARINO
GROUP

GHSM Group

Hospitality in the World's most ancient Republic

Tel. +378 0549 992400
info@ghsmgroup.sm
www.ghsmgroup.sm