Hello PR Medical Events,

Coming back from Amsterdam I must congratulate you all. Your team is great and has been most helpful throughout the whole process so regarding the services you have offered I can only say "thumbs up" - seriously, everything went smoothly and without any issues.
I have only positive feedback on the hotel, and in my honest opinion it was a good value for money (considering the upped prices in Amsterdam especially during congress periods) and I consider the hotel choice as successful.

As far as suggestions go – "keep up the good work" is all I can give as "advice". Thank you!
