Congresses and Conferences

A complete expirience, walk, ride a bike, visit a gallery and make your own art

In order to generate great business opportunities or to enlarge specific education all over the world, we need to encourage meetings with the representatives of different companies, branches, nations or independent organizations to enable an exchange of knowledge and know-how. Here at Encuentro, we will be happy to organize your professional conference or scientific congress for you by consulting, planning, executing and supervising your event in all stages. Please feel free to pick one of our most requested congress venues in Mexico.
