Venus DMC
your "one stop shopping" place in turkey

Venus offers over 25 years of experience, enthusiasm and commitment to destination management across all Turkey, ensuring exciting and picture perfect events for you and your clients.

Image or reputation are very hard to win, and may take a lifetime. In fact loosing them is very easy. The protection of your values is Venus' job.

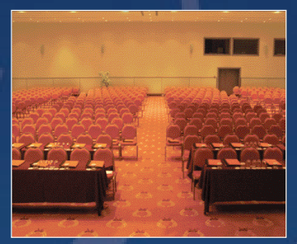

As VENUS team, we take the responsibility of organizing your events in such a professional way that you can be free to look after your people. We are here to provide you the following;

Conventions & congresses

Venus experience is at your service. Your participants are wellcomed and embraced by skillful hands all thru out the events. The accommodation, on-line registration, compiling of rooming lists and conference and booth sign-ups are processed thru efficient softwares.

Conference & Incentive management

Venus emroiders a conference setting where all mechanisms tick like a clock. Design, on-site communication, video and sound systems and photographers. And your conference becomes a technical triumph.

Incentive programs

We design tailor-made programs to suit all our clients' individual requirements. Our activities include hotel and venue selection, gala dinner events and social programs that meet every budget.

We are aware that a motivated employee or a sales partner is worth two! He or she is more productive, lives up to your expectations, second guesses them, and even predicts them. She or he takes your business interests and success to heart and seldom expects anything in return. That is why the programs we design are made to offer a creative edge even for our most well traveled clients, whether it is for their first, second or third visit to the destination!

Transportation

Venus carefully selects all the transportation services, including deluxe air-conditioned motor coaches, chauffeured limousines, minivans, helicopters and boats. Venus also guarantees that all its transportation suppliers meet international safety standards.

On site staff

Venus is ready to provide experienced, multi-lingual tour guides, hostesses, airport, hotel and convention center supervisors. Our goal is realise your events, effortless and flawless!

Gala evening events

The spectacular finale to any event is very important. From international stars to modest professional musicians, fully equipped stage and a well decorated gala hall. We guarantee wonderful memories.

Hotel contracting

Venus is the expert of his destination. We'll be happy to put all our experience and influence in getting you the 'best deal in Turkey'. We will be your precious ally for any accommodation research and contracting.

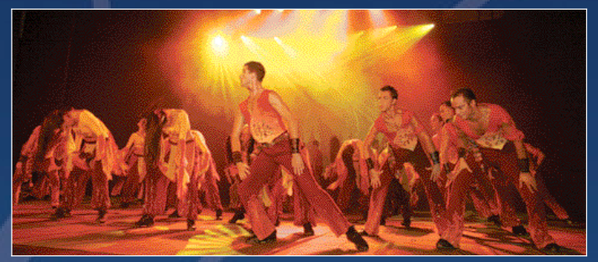

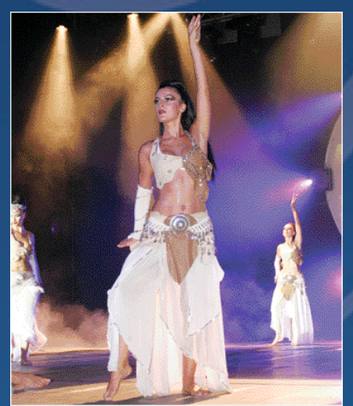

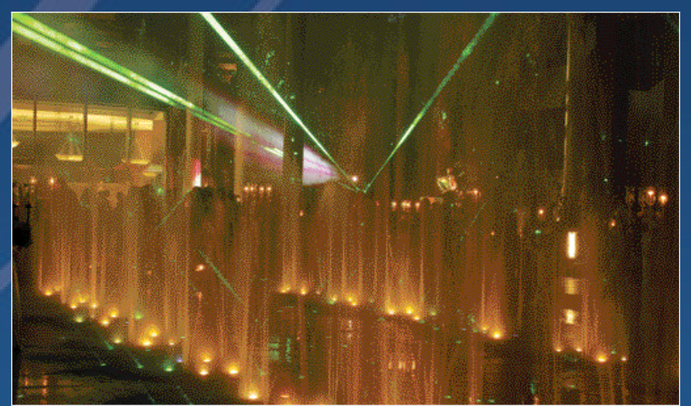

Entertainment

Let Venus design and deliver the perfect entertainment program with various original productions. Let us dazzle your participants with a great experience of dance and music.

Amenities and special gifts

Our team is ready to find, produce and deliver your selected gifts to your guests. Depending on your budget, and taste, from textiles to specialy produced Turkish delights, Turkey is a land of souvenirs.

Site selection

On one side Turkey is a land of rich ancient history, on the other side the paradise that nature had always been generous with. The first action you need for the motivation of your people is already presented by the nature to you.

Providing all modern and (or) authentic meeting facilities, TURKEY presents you an unlimited choice of locations to move your people in a way they'll never forget.

Cappadocia

Cappadocia region is like a natural play ground. We believe adding some creativity to natural offers of the area will make Cappadocia one of the favorite incentive destination.

- Ballooning: Floating serenely above the spectacular volcanic landscape ends up with a Champagne Brunch.
- Horse Back Riding: Touring the area by horses will give a different perspective to the visitors.
- Village Wedding: Being invited to the folkloric wedding in a typical village and tasting the local food, is the best way to understand the local life style.
- Pottery Atelier Party: Pottery making is an old tradition in Avanos. These ateliers are mostly in caves, learning pottery making and tasting the local wine is fun.
- Turkish Night in a Cave: In Cappadocia there are several night clubs carved into caves. They are famous with folkloric dancing, food and local wine.
