OUR DESTINATIONS

Estonia. Where Medieval meets Modern
Estonia is a small & friendly country where the president can freely go shopping in the evening or join his people at a rock concert. Estonia offers her guests experience of medieval romance combined with modern luxury. You can spend entire days in the UNESCO heritage listed medieval old town in Tallinn. You can go to one of Estonia's small islands to have exquisite local production based dinner in Luxurios Manor House.
Estonia's capital Tallinn is the best-preserved medieval city in Northern Europe
Estonia connects the dots between Scandinavia, Central Europe and what lies to the east

Latvia. Best enjoyed slowly.
The second largest Baltic country with 2.1 million residents. The Latvian language belongs to the same Balto-Slavic family as Lithuanian. Along with Estonia, Latvia is one of the most forested countries in the EU, covered by over 50% forest.
Riga, Latvia's capital, is famous for having the highest concentration of Art Nouveau style buildings in the world as well as an old town on the UNESCO World Heritage list.

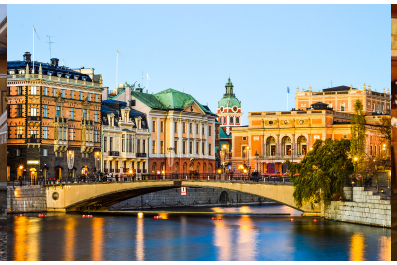

Lithuania. A country, guarded by angels.
Lithuania is a country of majestic castles, embellished with gardens, flowerbeds and pieces of art. It is a country, where the Baltic Sea tempts you to splash about surrounded by nature, it jewels its shores with a Lithuanian gold.
Vilnius, the capital of Lithuania. Here the Vilnius Castle complex looks over the city at the place where the Vilnia and Neris rivers converge.

Finland. The land of the thousand lakes.
Finland is full of interesting contrasts, such as the four seasons, the Midnight Sun and winter darkness,urban and rural, East and West. It is the land of the thousand lakes.

The most of Finland is covered by the taiga. The northernmost region hits Arctic Circle. In winter the visitors can admire the Northern Lights in Aurora Zone. Moreover, in the village of Rovaniemi, Santa's house is located!

Helsinki, Fresh and surprising. Dynamic and lively. Helsinki, the capital of Finland, is a vibrant seaside city of beautiful islands and great green parks.

Sweden. Heart of Scandinavia.
Sweden is a sparsely populated country, characterized by its long coastline, extensive forests and numerous lakes. It is one of the world's northernmost countries. In terms of surface area it is comparable to Spain, Thailand or the American state of California. Sweden's borders have been unchanged since 1905 and the country has not been at war since 1814.
Stockholm, the capital of Sweden, is built on 14 islands. It has more than 50 bridges, as well as the medieval old town, Gamla Stan, Royal palaces and museums. Stockholm is known for its beautiful archipelago with it´s 24 000 islands. Water surrounds the city. To the east the Baltic Sea and to the west the Lake Mälaren.

Russia. The great adventure.
Russia, the world's largest nation, borders European and Asian countries as well as the Pacific and Arctic oceans. Its landscape ranges from tundra and forests to subtropical beaches. It's famous for Moscow's Bolshoi and St. Petersburg's Mariinsky ballet companies. St. Petersburg, founded by Russian leader Peter the Great, has the baroque Winter Palace, now housing part of the State Hermitage Museum's art collection.
Moscow. As it is stated in ancient chronicles, in 1147 Prince Yury Dolgoruky invited his relative, Prince Svyatoslav Olgovich, to see him in Moscow which at that time was a small castle lost in the boundless Russian forest. Thus the history of the biggest political, economic, cultural and scientific center of Russia began.
St Petersburg. Built from nothing by westward-looking Peter the Great, St Petersburg was from its inception to be a display of imperial Russia's growing status in the world. Fine-tuned by Peter's successors, who employed a host of European architects to add fabulous palaces and cathedrals to the city's layout,
St Petersburg grew to be the Romanovs' showcase capital and Russia's first great, modern city, a status it has retained despite the capital moving back to Moscow following the revolution
