ONE COUNTRY

PORTUGAL IS

Portugal is the perfect destination for your evenT, a welcoming and hospitable country, with more than eight centuries of history – founded in 1143, it is the oldest nation-state in Europe.

Inscribed in a rectangle of 560 km long south-western Iberian Peninsula, with a great diversity of landscapes, counts with more than 800 km of coastline on the Atlantic.
A trip to Portugal is a celebration of diversity, an opportunity to enjoy our excellent climate (3000 hours of sunshine per year), cuisine, history and tradition.

We are able to take care of your EVENT in Portugal, offering exclusive services in:

Deluxe Hotels, 4 and 5 Stars Hotels, Pousadas (Inns)
Sophisticated Structures
Modern Congress Centers
National Palaces, Convents or Monasteries
Restaurants and unique Landscapes

In Portugal you can find 11 sites distinguished by UNESCO World Heritage: the Jeronimos Monastery, the Belém Tower, Sintra Village, Evora City, the Monasteries of Alcobaça and Batalha, the Couvent of Tomar, the city of Porto, the Douro Valley, the prehistoric rock paintings of Foz Coa valley and Guimarães City.

ART AND CULTURE

The land that is now Portugal has been inhabited for thousands of years and its national boundaries have been defined for eight centuries. This long history is reflected in a particular culture that is the result of the mixture of the many peoples who settled here and those that the Portuguese encountered on their voyages of Discovery.

It is found in the villages and towns, in the monuments and traditions, which bring together influences that the Portuguese have applied creatively. And the omnipresent sea has also shaped our personality and taken us beyond the continent of Europe, enabling us to learn and share with the rest of the world

LANDSCAPE AND GASTRONOMY

The compact size of Portugal invites you to discover a large variety of environments:
The capital city by the sea "Lisbon" - Europe's Leading City Break Destination 2009, 2010 and 2013, where tradition and modernity blend agreeably.

In the Center - the University of Coimbra, the oldest in Portugal and one of the oldest in the world.

In the North - the charming city of Oporto and the granite hills and vineyards of Douro valley.

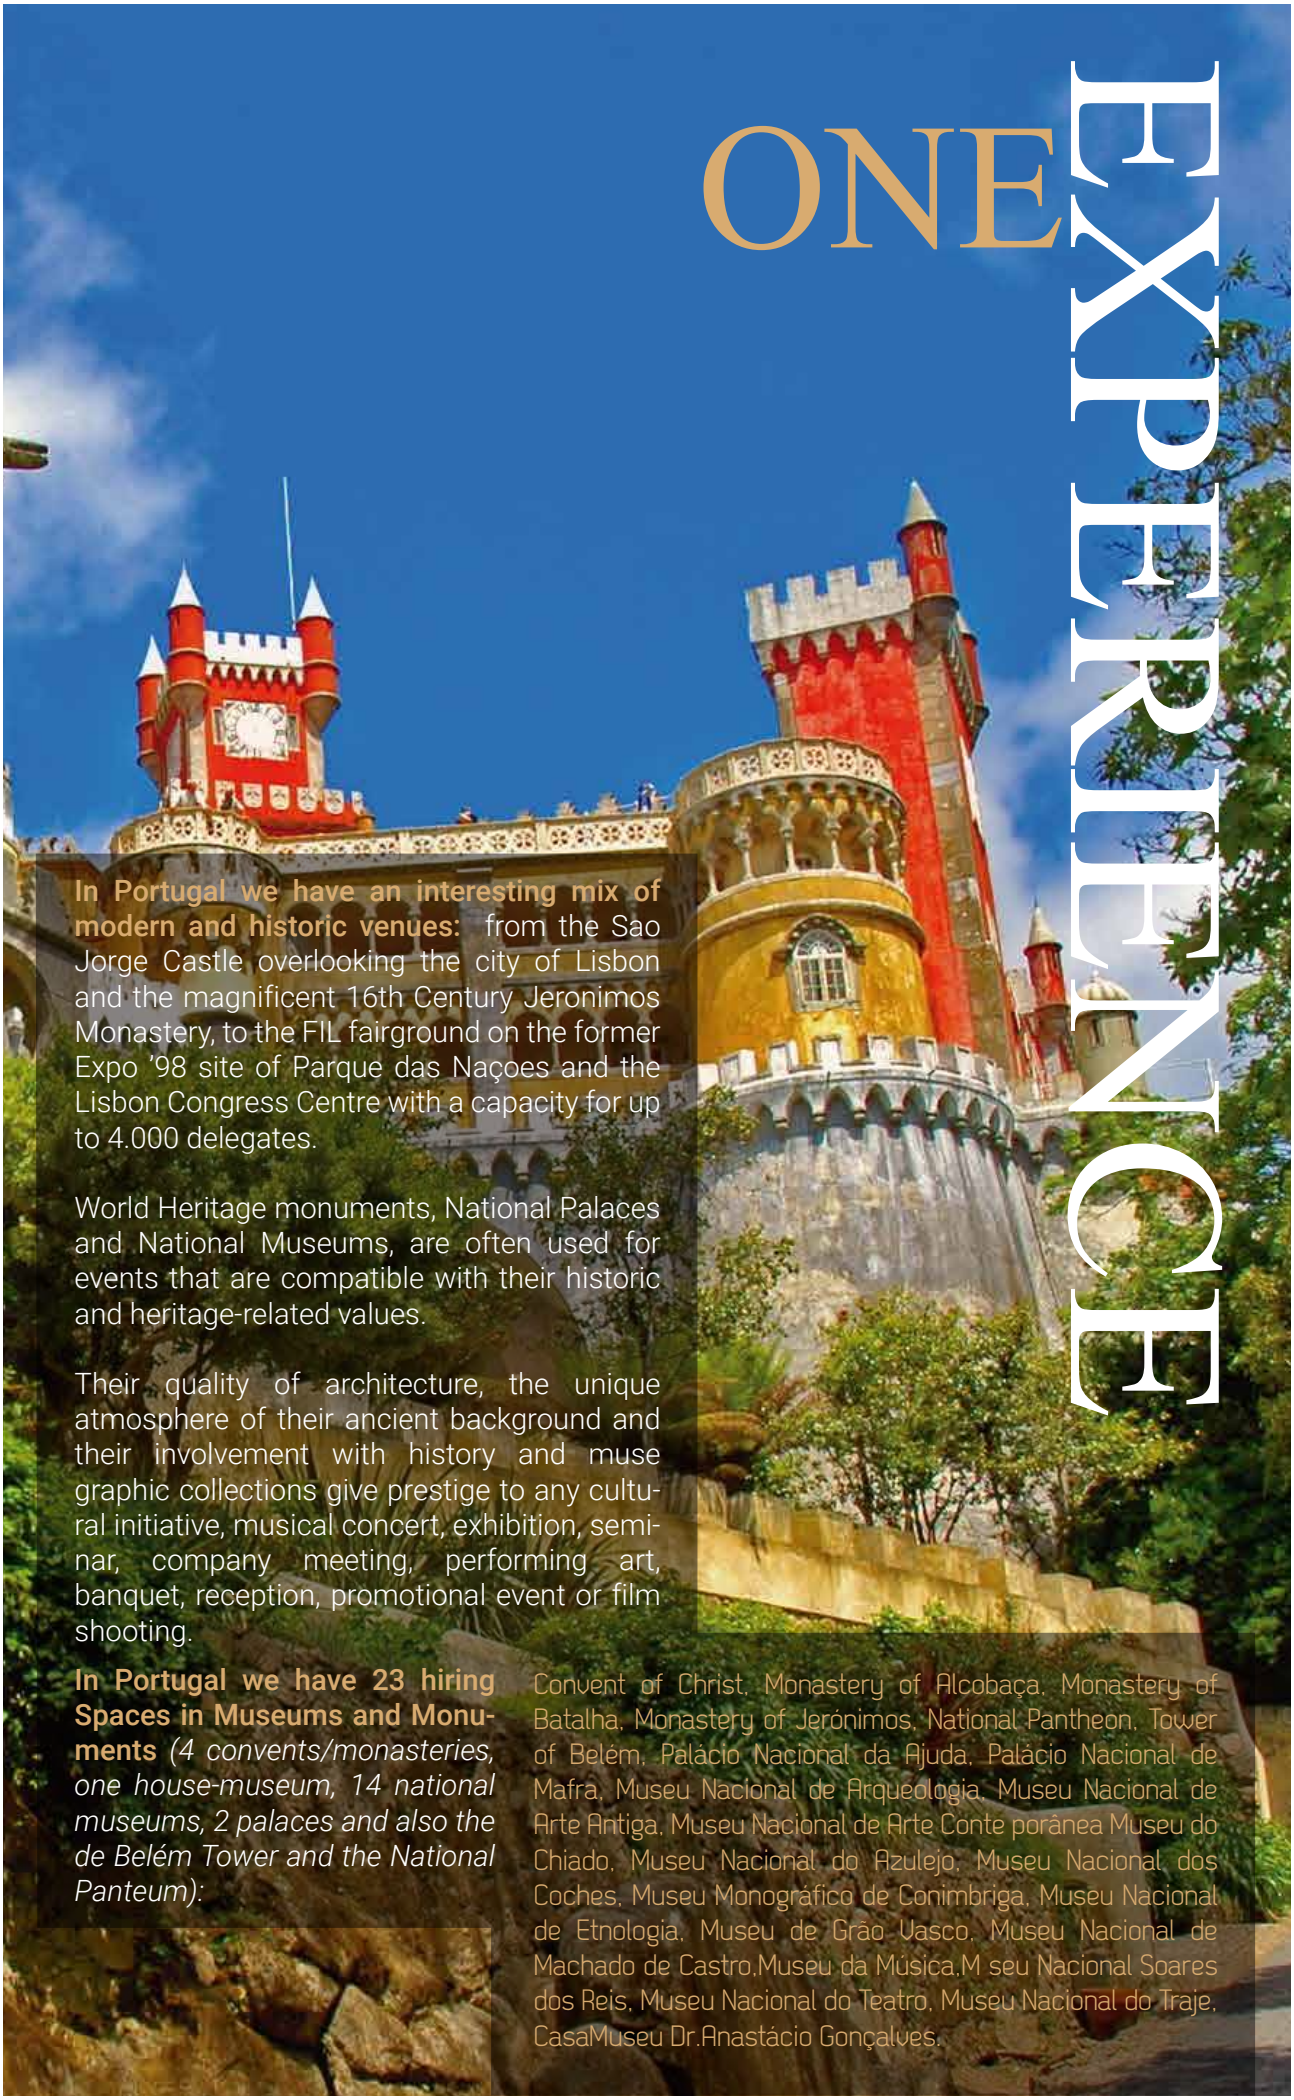

In the South, the Algarve, a huge Arab garden which contains among its coastal cliffs some of the most beautiful sandy beaches in Europe.

And finally the Islands of Madeira and the Azores which offer some interesting two centre programme options.

Portugal's cuisine is as rich and varied as its landscape.
The most distinctive feature of Portuguese cuisine comes from the sea. As you enjoy a simple grilled fish, always fresh like the seafood that abounds along the coast.

For meat dishes, we have excellent varieties of meat, from north to south, whether it's beef, pork or kid. Many vegetables and fruits also preserve the taste of the old days. Portuguese olive oil is of prime quality and is part of every dish, including cod (for which it is said that there are 1001 recipes!).
Each dish is matched to the right wine. The whole country produces wine and, while Port wine is famous, the Douro, Alentejo and many other table wines are no less superior.
At the end of a meal, we might make a toast with some Port or Madeira, fortified wines that have been spreading our name to faraway lands for centuries. Or, with an excellent sparkling wine produced in Portugal, to celebrate a memorable meal provided by the country's talented chefs.

ONE EXPERIENCE

In Portugal we have an interesting mix of modern and historic venues: from the Sao Jorge Castle overlooking the city of Lisbon and the magnificent 16th Century Jeronimos Monastery, to the FIL fairground on the former Expo '98 site of Parque das Naçoes and the Lisbon Congress Centre with a capacity for up to 4.000 delegates.

World Heritage monuments, National Palaces and National Museums, are often used for events that are compatible with their historic and heritage-related values.

Their quality of architecture, the unique atmosphere of their ancient background and their involvement with history and muse graphic collections give prestige to any cultural initiative, musical concert, exhibition, seminar, company meeting, performing art, banquet, reception, promotional event or film shooting.

In Portugal we have 23 hiring Spaces in Museums and Monuments (4 convents/monasteries, one house-museum, 14 national museums, 2 palaces and also the de Belém Tower and the National Panteum):

In our days Incentive programs are the best way to motivate employees or show appreciation to customers. OSIRIS has the experience to work with you in order to find the appropriate program according to your company's needs, schedule and budget.

More and more companies are giving incentive tours to reward employees and partners. Incentive travel programs demonstrate the company's thoughtfulness, and they are more memorable and meaningful than monetary rewards. Incentive programs are tailor-made for all groups both large and small.

No two companies are exactly alike. For this reason, incentive programs should not be one-size-fits-all events. Each program should be tailored to fit the needs of the participants. OSIRIS customizes each of its incentive itineraries to match our clients' needs. We take into consideration the participants' ability, and interests, and we provide unique venues and exciting activities that the participants cannot experience elsewhere.

UNIQUE EXPERIENCES

Tram / Yellow cable car of Lisbon (20 or 25 PAX): a stroll along the traditional and historical streets of Lisbon. This means of transport is a Lisbon classic. This experience is a synonym of charm and discovery, enabling you to learn more about the typical boroughs (Alfama, Bairro Alto, Graça ...) in a different and unforgettable way!

Go Car: a different way of visiting Lisbon, while driving a unique vehicle which will help you travel along the streets of the 7 Hills of Lisbon. By using a fun, but extremely useful GPS, you will get acquainted with the typical boroughs.

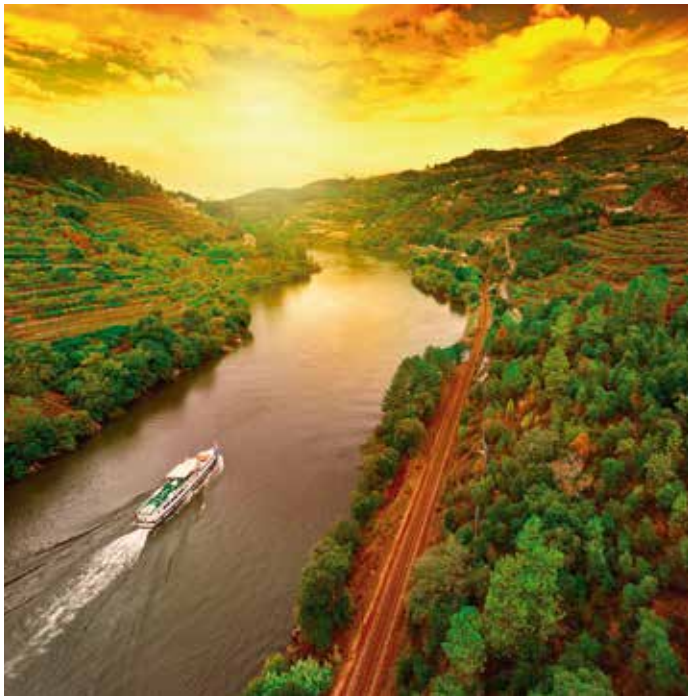

Segway: A modern and fun means of transportation. As Lisbon stands in the middle of 7 hills, this is an easy way to visit the city, while providing moments of great fun.

Tasting of "Pasteis de Nata" (also called "Pasteis de Belém") Visit the emblematic site (the authentic one), founded in 1837, The Royal Factory of Belém The secret of Belém's Pasteis de Nata is something kept in great secrecy but their flavour is open to all. Ready for the tasting? Caution: this delicious pastry is addictive!

Tuk- Tuk Lisbon or Oporto: But isn't this means of transportation famous in Asia? Yes, it is an Asian motor vehicle (3 persons plus driver in each vehicle), but it now also exists in Lisbon (and Oporto). Easy, fun and unique. The seven hills of Lisbon are no longer a challenge.

Visit to the Port wine cellars: Oporto is famous for the prestige of its wines. The cultivation takes place in the beautiful area called the Douro Valley, but, a year after harvest, the sacred liquid is transported to the caves near the city of Oporto, where they mature in oak barrels to develop the flavour that will later be savoured by consumers around the world. "To your health, a toast!"

Cruise and Train in the Douro: Tour up the river on a cruise boat. Journey to the village of Pinhão. Navigate smoothly and indulge in the unforgettable landscape of the Douro, where the hills shaped by human hands are reflected in the waters of the River Douro. A region of wine and landscape. Return to Oporto by the traditional steam train. History and landscape meet in this unique experience. An original tour ideal for those in love, groups and fine wine lovers, a journey of discovery and excitement.

Fado Experience in Coimbra (Fado from Coimbra): 50 minutes of the history of the fado from Coimbra (did you know that fado from Coimbra features a specific guitar which is different from the one played in Lisbon? Did you know that it is believed that Brazilian serenades influenced the Fado from Coimbra?). Time to listen to professional singers of Fado from Coimbra while sipping a fine Port wine.

Boat ride in Algarve: The ride will provide a different perspective of the coast, the beaches, towns and cities. The cliffs of Algarve have always been "sculptured" by the wind and are of great beauty, stressing the strong hues, the caves and secret beaches and the splashing of colours in the gardens and hotels that lie on the cliffs.

Cuisine Workshop: The cuisine is sacred in Alentejo, where traditional recipes, benefiting from the richness of Alentejo's exclusive products, are made with the knowledge of centenary experience. Cooking classes may be attended by the most curious visitors. Ready? (so, roll up your sleeves) and let's get to work!

Basket descent in Madeira Island: Discover this traditional and always exciting descent of Baskets along the steep streets of the island of Madeira. The baskets are pushed (and supported) by people dressed in traditional costumes.
