Views of Doha

From the hotel, we head to the city center, to the Msheireb district, to take a tram tour through the historical center of Doha and the most advanced and eco-friendly urban district in the world.

Walk through the Souq underpass to Souq Waqif: a traditional market with numerous shops where you can find ceramics and fabrics, spices, Arabic sweets and perfumes, candied fruits, traditional clothing, as well as classic souvenirs.
Take a break for traditional Arabic sweets and tea at Souq Waqif.

On the way to Katara Cultural Village, we will pass by the glittering towers of West Bay.
The final stop is The Pearl Island, also known as Pearl-Qatar. This popular tourist destination features Mediterranean-style marinas, hotels, luxury shops, and modern restaurants.

Duration: 4-5 hours

Tour of Msheireb and Souq Waqif

Msheireb is a historical and cultural district in the heart of Doha that has undergone significant development and modernization. This area combines modern technology with the preservation of Qatar's cultural heritage, making it one of the most ambitious sustainable and smart city projects.

The architecture of the district blends traditional Qatari elements with contemporary design, placing great emphasis on eco-friendly materials and energy-efficient technologies. Msheireb is also a cultural hub of Doha, home to museums, galleries, and cultural centers, such as the Msheireb Museum, which tells the story of the district's past.

The district's infrastructure includes modern office buildings, residential complexes, shopping centers, and restaurants, as well as convenient access to public transportation. The area promotes social and environmental initiatives aimed at improving the quality of life for its residents and visitors.

Tour of Msheireb and Souq Waqif

Souq Waqif offers a unique atmosphere where modernity intertwines with rich history and culture. Here you can find everything from fragrant spices and exotic incense to traditional clothing, jewelry, handicrafts, and rare antiques.

Souq Waqif is also famous for its restaurants and cafés, where visitors can sample local cuisine and enjoy a cup of Arabic coffee in the evening. As you stroll through the narrow alleys of the market, you'll feel the atmosphere of old Qatar, which has preserved its roots in the heart of the modern city.

Duration: 2-3 hours

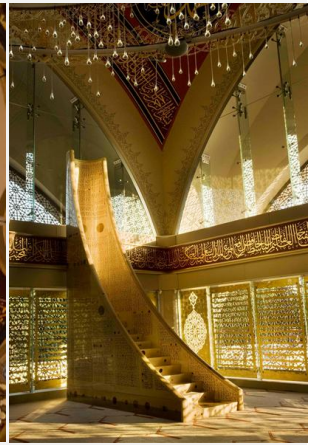

Katara – Ethnocultural Village

Bordered by a large beach on one side and the Katara Hills on the other, Katara is a favorite spot in Doha for art, culture, and cuisine enthusiasts.

During a walking tour of Katara Cultural Village, you will see the following:

- Katara's Mosques: The picturesque Zeynep Fadillioglu Mosque and the shimmering Golden Mosque.
- Katara Amphitheater, offering stunning views of the sea and the city.
- Katara's Street Art and Installations: Subodh Gupta's Three Monkeys of Gandhi, The Force of Nature, and The Oryx Marches Forward, a mural by Argentine artist Martín Ron.
- Sample local culinary delights at Karak & Chapatti restaurant and learn about the famous Pigeon Towers nearby.

Education City Tour

On the way to Education City, you will see a series of sculptures by artist Damien Hirst titled The Miraculous Journey. This stunning ensemble consists of 14 sculptures depicting the stages of human fetal development from conception to birth. The composition, located in front of the Sidra Medical Center, is one of Hirst's most significant works and symbolizes the miracle of life. Nearby, you will also find the Qatar National Convention Centre, known for its unique architecture and large-scale events, and the Sidra Tree Auditorium, named after the Sidra tree, a symbol of knowledge and resilience in the Arab world.

The first stop is at Al Shaqab, a world-class equestrian complex. Established in 1992, this facility has become a center for breeding and training purebred Arabian horses, known for their grace and strength. Here, you will have an unforgettable experience – getting up close to these magnificent horses, learning about their care, and discovering the centuries-old traditions of horse breeding in Qatar. Al Shaqab is also famous for hosting prestigious international competitions, such as the Emir’s Cup, which annually attracts top riders from around the world.

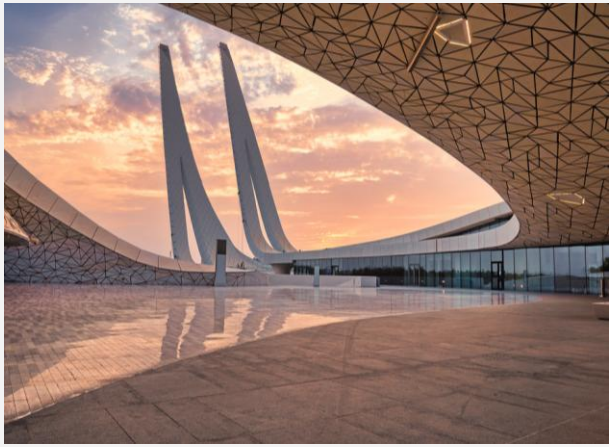

Education City Tour

You will discover the grandeur of the city mosque, a luxurious architectural marvel that reflects the compatibility of Islam and modernity. This mosque, located in the heart of Education City, stands out with its modern design featuring elements of traditional Islamic art. The architecture, blending minimalism and symbolism, emphasizes the importance of religion in daily life and its harmonious coexistence with contemporary trends.

Finally, you will witness the wonders of the Arab-Islamic world as you immerse yourself in the rich cultural heritage showcased in the ultra-modern Heritage Library. This library, equipped with cutting-edge technology, houses unique manuscripts and books that reflect centuries of Islamic civilization. Here, you will be able to see rare manuscripts, historical documents, and collections that shed light on the cultural and scientific achievements of the Arab world.
