Titicaca Lake - Copacabana

It is a large, deep lake in the Andes on the border of Bolivia and Peru. It is often called the "highest navigable lake" in the world, with a surface elevation of 3,812 msal (12,507 ft).

Copacabana: It is the main Bolivian town on the shore of Lake Titicaca. The town has a large 16th-century shrine, the Basilica of Our Lady of Copacabana. Our Lady of Copacabana is the patron saint of Bolivia. The town is a destination for tourism in Bolivia. The town is also known for its famous Basilica, home of the Virgin of Copacabana, its trout, and its quaint atmosphere.
