PayFest 2019 came about after women were granted equal pay in Glasgow. The massive decision has allowed women to be backdated for unfair pay. This event was a celebration of that decision. Panoptic Events were asked to pull together some entertainment for the event, we offered a lot more. We proposed an event that would leave a lasting legacy. A decision like this needed a party that people would talk about. We created the concept, event managed the entire event and providing all suppliers and entertainers. We put 3 screens on stage, showing the demonstrations, then the victory. Our band were Massaoke, doing a girl power set. The MC & DJ was Paul Harper We used social media by creating a hashtag, allowing images on screen, we used new event technology so that the photos would automatically print, this meaning your phone became a photo booth Over 1100 people turned up to enjoy this night. Panoptic Events can help you bring your event ideas to life, and help leave a lasting impression & legacy for your delegates. Testimonials

"Our recent Leadership day took place on behalf of our client Arbonne, who had come from Sydney, Australia. Their brief was High End, Luxury and Healthy. "Thank you so much, for organising this incredible venue and helping us bring our vision to life!!! Everyone is still talking about the day and of course that Vegan lunch!!!! I'm so proud of what you have created with Panoptic!"

Michelle, National Vice President, Arbonne International.

"PayFest 2019 and Panoptic Events Craig McGee and Panoptic Events pulled out all the stops for our big equal pay party - 'PayFest 2019' - at the world famous Glasgow Barrowlands on Saturday 6th July 2019. PayFest celebrated the achievement of thousands of low paid, predominantly female workers in Glasgow and their long fight for equal pay with their employer - Glasgow City Council. Live music and dancing were at the heart of the evening, like any good party, with the Glasgow-based band Massaoke and DJ Paul Harper providing a great atmosphere for a really memorable evening. Craig and his team were professional, highly organised and a pleasure to work from beginning to end - helping with initial ideas and planning, sourcing quality products and services for the event, as well as overseeing all the final arrangements which made PayFest such a big success. I can heartily recommend Craig and his team and I would have no hesitation in using Panoptic Events again."
