DISCOVER MONTENEGRO

SMALL GROUPS FULLY GUIDED GARANTUEED DAPARTURE

To be a Nomad is a way of life – the difference between a tourist and a traveller, becoming friendly with the locals, a means of experiencing a destination first-hand with all of your senses at your disposal, rather than through a camera lense, but with a map in your hands.

Free time has become a luxury in today's world - becoming a Nomad is about choosing to use this time wisely and creating opportunities to experience the true beauty and nature of a destination.

I chose to switch my desk job for the more creative role of discovery with Nomad – while sketching maps to divulge every hidden corner of Montenegro, I realised my true passion for travel and swapped my briefcase, suit and tie for a pair of binoculars and hiking boots. My office is now the open air of Montenegro and my dinner breaks consist of winery tours along the coast and organic food – more idyllic than I could ever have imagined.

Nomad is more than just a day job – I like to see it as an open invite to the adventures that Montenegro has to offer. Just if you could see your happy faces. This is the reason why we love so much what we do.

Yours,

S. THE NOMAD

Friendly, knowledgeable, warm, welcoming are just some of the comments that our dear guests have to say about our guide team.

About Montenegro

Montenegro is a small country with a lot to offer. It is squeezed between Bosnia and Herzegovina to the northwest; Serbia and Kosovo to the east, Albania to the south and Croatia to the west. It has an area of 13.812 square kilometres but it has an outstanding diversity. It has five national parks: Durmitor, Lake Skadar, Lovćen, Biogradska Gora and Prokletije. The climate is a variation of different zones the Mediterranean climate on the coast, with alpine conditions in the mountains. Average number of sunny days a year is 240 days and the swimming season lasts for 180 days. Montenegro is a well connected by land and water.

We have ports: Bar, Budva, Kotor and Herceg Novi and airports: Podgorica and Tivat.

Climate information

Montenegro has three climatic zones which give the country the climate of amazing diversity.

- The Coastal zone:

Consists of a narrow strip along the Adriatic Sea and has a Mediterranean climate, with long, dry summer, short and mild winter. Its July temperature is between 28°C and 30°C, while its winter average temperature is 9°C. Spring in the coastal zone is characterized by sunny weather and autumn by frequent rainfall, with November as the wettest month.

- The Continental zone:

Consists of the central part of Montenegro including the Zeta Plain, the Bjelopavlići Plain, and the capital city of Podgorica. It is warmer in this zone as a result of the influences of water surface. Podgorica is considered as the hottest spot in the country but the cold air penetration from the north makes more days chilly in the zone.

- The Mountain zone:

Consists of the mountain region, the highest mountain peaks reaching 2.000 meters in the sub-alpine climate and cold snowy winters of up to five meters of snow in the mountains. The zone has 270 hours of sunshine during summer with a temperature of 23°C to 9°C, which dips to 3°C during winter when mountains are snow-covered.

- The sea temperature:

In winter it is 10°C to 12°C and in summer, 25°C to 28°C.

The Experience of Our Nomad Montenegro Family Members

They will share with their passion for a beautiful country, full of stories and history

I had an amazing journey through Montenegro with Pavle. He make sure to share all the best of his country with you and you can feel his passion. It's well work inquiring about optional/ additional activities upfront - they will make sure to meet your wishes.You can expect full days, packed with sights, information and things you would not be able to do on your own (like the winery tour). For me personally, I could have wished for some more physical activities. Again, a perfect outdoor day in Zabljak was arranged for me and when we asked to walk instead of driving, our wish was fulfilled. Nomad is a very young company and still continuously improving and hence eager for feedback. I have enjoyed this a lot - it did not for one moment feel like a fully commercialized tour but more like traveling with friends.

Traveling like a local with Nomad Tours Montenegro

Fun, friendly and knowledgable guides. Amazing locations. Local experiences. What more could you want!
My guide Pavle helped me understand Montenegro like a local, and was a great person to explore with. It felt like we were traveling as friends together, rather than just in a tour group!

Ray Mond, Australia

Awesome Tour!! Highly recommended!

We loved our tour of Montenegro with Pavle from Nomad! We felt like we were travelling with friends rather than a tour guide! Its great discovering new countries with a tour guide who is easy going , informative, passionate and has such a fun & positive vibe! Nomad are flexible and easily accomodate your preferred activity options. We loved our rafting, zip line, hiking, nature and mountain bike adventures. All the other providers (rafting/bikes/ accomodation/food etc) are also amazing! The scenery is stunning and Nomad know all the beautiful places to show visitors! We highly recommend this or any tour with Nomad Montenegro, they are very friendly and go above and beyond for their guests! They also have a great local ethos and are doing great things!

Exceptional 7-Day Tour!

I highly recommend Nomad Tours Montenegro. They promised me a "perfect balance between exploration, exhilaration and relaxation" on my 7-day Classic Tour and they delivered! As a matter of fact, they exceeded my expectations! Small group, BIG adventures is spot on!We did it all! Hiking to fortresses, strolling around beautiful glacier lakes, visiting a 2000+ year old olive tree, tasting wine with VIP treatment in a mind-blowing family-owned winery, eating the delicious local cuisine, driving panoramic routes through enchanted forests and fields of wildflowers, experiencing the unique ambience and spiritual power of the many monasteries scattered throughout the country, getting an adrenaline rush ziplining over the deepest canyon in Europe, crossing over Tara bridge (one of the 20 most beautiful bridges in the world), exploring underground and underwater caves, sailing the breathtaking Boka , speed boating to Kotor (one of the most beautiful s in the world), ambling through the coastal town of Kotor, and soaring like a bird while paragliding over Budva.I have been on many organized tours and this was definitely one of my favorites for many reasons: 1) Ease of booking, preparation, and great communication. I booked at the last minute, but they were still able to accommodate me and get me all of the detailed information I needed to ensure I had a great trip. 2) Their itineraries offer a wide range of options for all ages. It is also accommodating based on weather as well as your interests, energy level and mood. 3) They will take you off the beaten track to the hidden jewels and get you embedded in the culture by meeting the locals and eating the delicious national cuisine. (Not all tour operators do this and let's face it, that is usually WHY we travel to other countries.) 4) Excursions, restaurants, wineries, routes and hotels are carefully researched (watchdogged) and handpicked to ensure they offer top-notch service and keep you away from the crowds. You will experience comfort, cleanliness, and safety along with friendly staffs, great locations and wonderful, fresh meals. 5) Unlike many other tours where you start the day off extremely early and spend 10-12 hours in the car to get to an attraction our days started at 0900 and usually ended around 1700 or 1800. We never spent more than 3 hours in the car and everyday was full of fun and adventure! 6) The staff!! Kudos to Palve, the executive manager and my guide! Not only is he a wealth of information and can tell you anything you want to know about Montenegro (culture, history, religions, politics, demographics, weather...anything) he will make you feel like family and that you are a Montenegrin. Funny, well-connected, smart, professional, caring, helpful (always helping me up and down steep steps and carrying my luggage), a skilled/patient driver (I never felt stressed in the car like I have on other tours), flexible, and friendly. You really can't ask for more in a guide. Also, a shout out to the CEO, Sinisa, who even came to great me a couple of times when I was in Podgorica!! What a team!It is no wonder Montenegro has become one of the TOP Tourist destinations in the last couple of years. This tiny little country offers it all! A dark blue sea with beautiful beaches, intriguing islets, and turquoise coves. Majestic mountains with crystal clear rivers, deep canyons, huge freshwater lakes, and colorful valleys. It's breathtaking wild beauty will surely steal your heart like it did mine. To get the full experience with zero stress, book with Nomad Tours today and you can thank me later!

Excellent tour

Excellent tour. Guide was full of knowledge and very personable. He put a lot of effort into the tour to make sure we got the best out of it. Only thing I would say is that lunch times where not placed well. We did so much during the days, that we weren't eating til 4pm. But other than that, would highly recommend this trip.

The best option to know Montenegro

Quite frankly, Nomad Tours is the best option to know Montenegro entirely. Savvy tour guides with information not only historical but fun facts. They know both owners and managers of the best restaurants, hotels and everything you need to have the best time in Montenegro. They can adapt to your needs, thus it does not matter if you are there for work or leisure, if you are alone or your your family or your partner, if you want to be in the beach or in the mountains. They will make your trip one if the best experience ms you could have..
