Romania The land of authentic, welcoming nature and exciting culture

The characteristics of Romania are unique in Europe. Our country enjoys the embrace of the Carpathians, with completely wild areas and the beauty of the Danube Delta, with large plains strewn with small natural and cultural treasures. People enrich this natural treasure with unaltered traditions and generous personality. The cultural objectives, of which many are part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site, are witnesses to a unique history, with a millennial base of Latin origin and with successors of several brave populations of the continent. The stories and legends of these places will surely fascinate you and the deep spirituality of Romanians will surprise you.

TURDA'S SALT MINE

In Turda, Transylvania, there is a wonderful place you should definitely visit. It is halfway between history and magic but to visit it you will have to take a trip to the center of the land, in an old salt mine in Romania. The ancient salt mine has ancient origins, it already existed in the 2nd century, when the Romans began to dig to find the salt. Today the Sale mine houses the Museum of Contemporary Art as well as being the location of numerous classical music concerts and exhibitions. Going down to 120 meters underground you will find an immense amphitheater, a Ferris wheel, a bowling alley, a spa for the care of the airways.
