CONVENTION & WORKSPACE

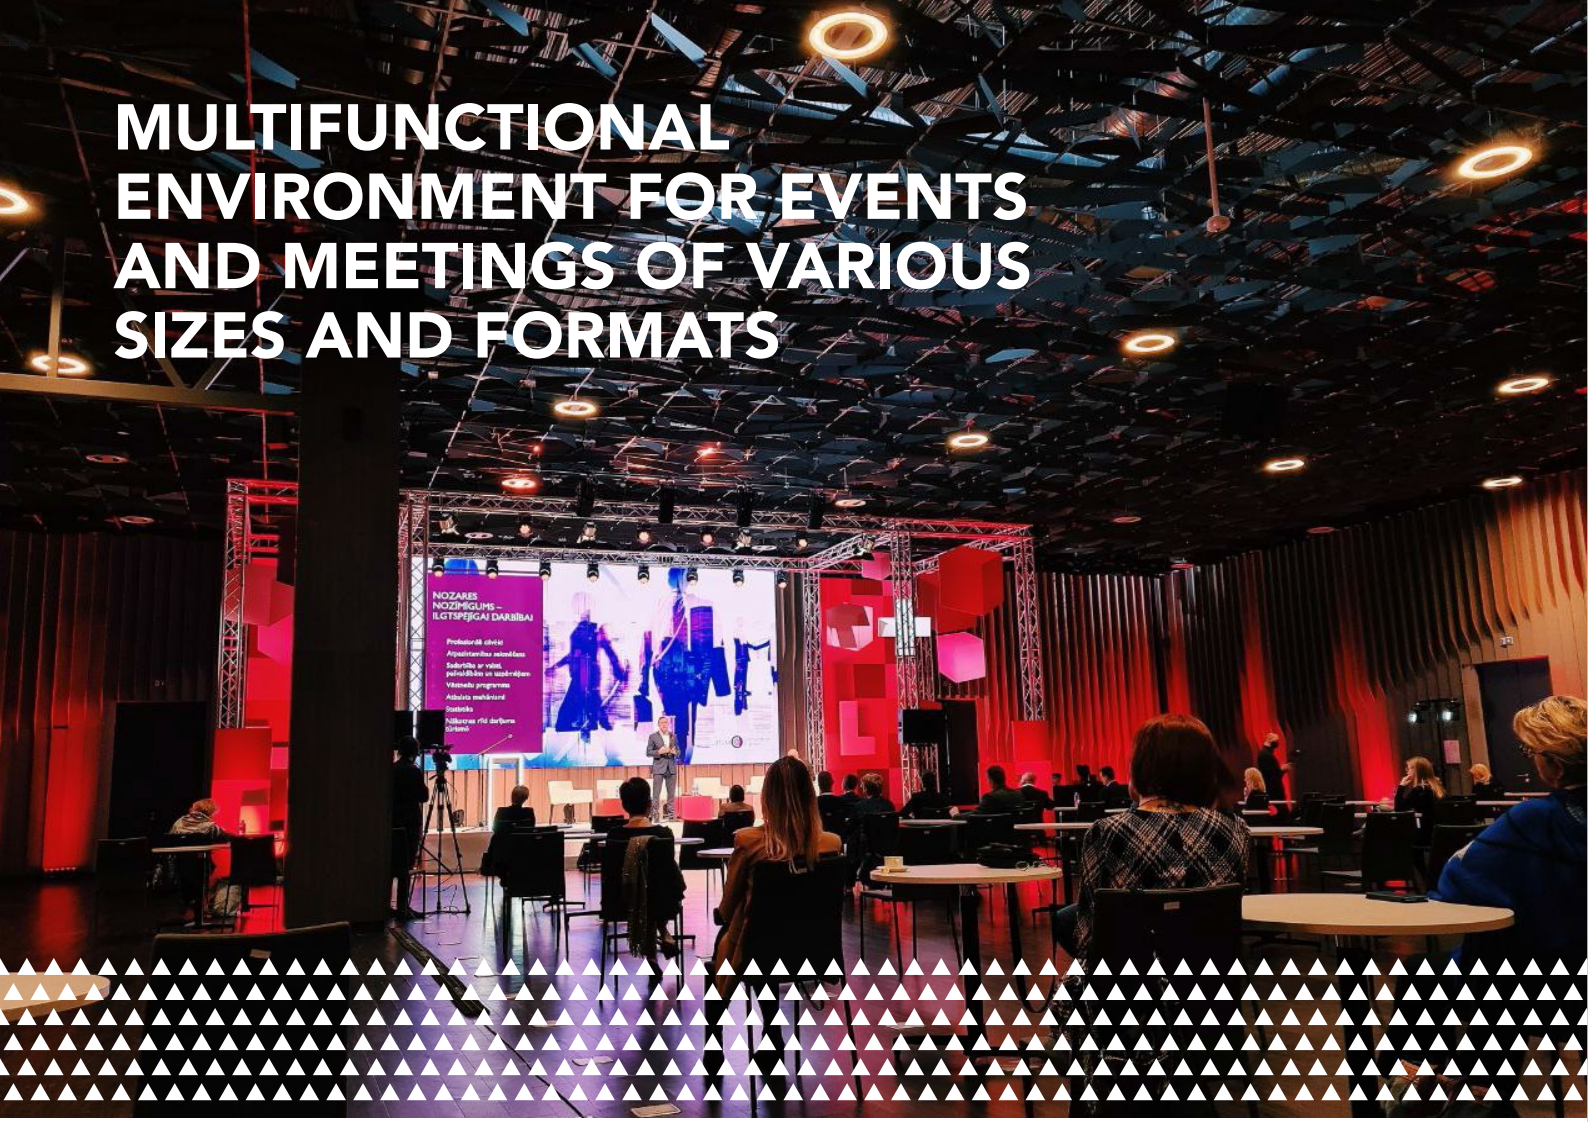

A modern business space

The 21st century is a time of continuous technological progress and discoveries. The onset of the new decade puts forward new demands on what a modern business person should be like. They try to manage everything and keep up with the times.

The modern business space is oversaturated with information. For a person of the 21st century, the most valuable resource is time - they seek to effectively organize their work, while finding time for self-realization and psychological relaxation.

ATTA CONVENTION CENTRE a multifunctional space, a centre for self-improvement, communication, training and relaxation.

MULTIFUNCTIONAL ENVIRONMENT FOR EVENTS AND MEETINGS OF VARIOUS SIZES AND FORMATS

PHILOSOPHY OF ATTA CENTRE

The concept of ATTA CENTRE is based on the idea of a large anthill. Atta ants is a unique genus of leaf-cutting ants, which are considered one of the most advanced organisms in the hierarchy of the animal world. Thus, the ATTA philosophy represents the idea of collective work aimed at creation, as well as striving towards joint development and discovering new horizons.

THE DESIGN CONCEPTION

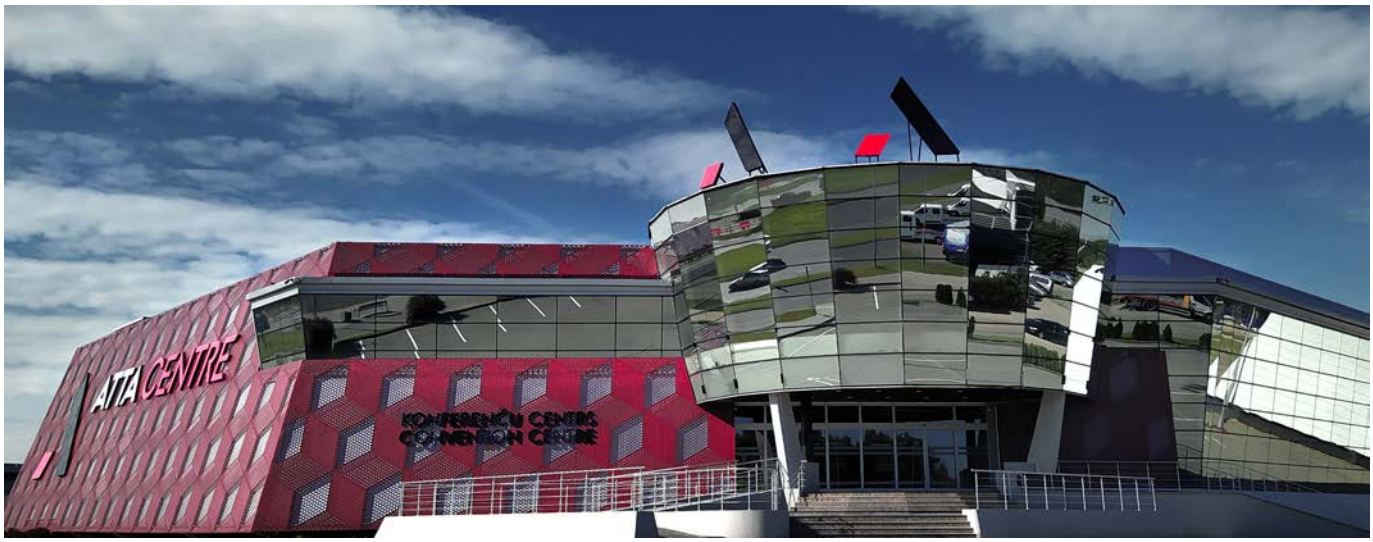

The total space of the ATTA CENTRE is 15 000 m², whereas the height of the ceiling is 6,5 metres. Thanks to a wide array of technological capabilities, the centre allows to hold a variety of events:
