Stone Town – The World Heritage Site

Stone Town is the cultural heart of the island and the old residential city in Zanzibar Islands. The city got its name from the many big multistory buildings made of stone which form the landscape of the old town part. These buildings are actually not only made of stone, but also with mortar and corals. The city still retained its old style from the 19th century, when Zanzibar was an important trading center in the Indian Ocean. It is a town of large bazaars, winding and narrow alleys, and large Arab houses. Understand its history by visiting places such as the Slave Markets, Anglican Cathedral, Palace of the Sultans, the old Arabic fort and the Forodhani Park.

The tour will start by visiting the fruit market, which opened in 1904, with its variety of tropical fruits and spices, then followed by visiting the Anglican Cathedral at Mkunazini, which was built in 1874 on the site of the former slave market. Our professional guide will show you the place where slaves auctioned and tell you about the cities slave history. In this tour, you will also explore the National Museum of Zanzibar, which is also referred to as the Peace Memorial Museum. The museum holds a wide collection of the island's natural history and artifacts. Then we will walk to the Forodhani Gardens, where you will see the former British Consulate, Old fort and House of wonders, this is a tallest building which was built by the Sultan as a ceremonial and administrative building. With a refreshing walk in the narrow streets we will explore the old houses, most of which are older than 150 years.

Stone town tour is a half day tour and it can be combined with several tours to make your full day excursions. Here are some tours that can be combined with Stone town tour: - Prison Island tour, Spice tour, Masingini natural forest, etc.

Chumbe Island – The Coral Reef Sanctuary

Chumbe Island Coral Park is an award-winning private nature park just off the coast of stone town, Zanzibar. It was developed in 1991 when the formerly uninhabited Chumbe Island was recognized to be one of the last pristine coral islands in the region. It is an internationally acclaimed conservation area and it presents ecotourism at its finest. Half a square kilometer coral reef sanctuary and forest reserve are home to diverse corals, over 500 reef fish species, many crustaceans, among them the giant coconut crab, tortoises, and critically endangered Ader's antelopes. A very romantic and still very active retreat from the real world, almost a must for the environmentally conscious one.

This full-day tour you will have an opportunity of Snorkelling in the most colorful underwater world with a wide variety of fish, coral, turtles and other fascinating sea creatures. Learn about marine life, forests, and the nature reserve from professional guides. Sample delicious Swahili cuisine for lunch and enjoy the unique atmosphere of a secluded island. If the tide is right, you may even go for a guided intertidal walk. Explore the rock pools, impressive overhangs, and inter-tidal marine environment.

Make something special, book to stay one night at Chumbe eco-bangalow to join the rangers in a night walk to the forest's edge to spot the giant, but elusive coconut crabs. These largest living land crabs can grow to one meter from leg to leg and weigh up to 4 kilograms. They're able to climb coconut trees and crack the nuts open.

Prison Island – A homeland of giant tortoises

Prison Island, officially known as Changuu Island, got its nickname because of the prison that was built there in 1893. But today, it's most famous for its giant tortoise sanctuary, where you can get up close and personal with some of the oldest animals alive. There's also a boardwalk along the beach, which makes for an easy stroll along the sand, as well as a handful of swimming and snorkelling spots.

Also there is the building ruin, but it serves as a lovely guesthouse for tourists, where you'll be able to relax a bit and enjoy magnificent views after visiting the giant tortoises' reserve, where you will admire, pet, and even feed these magnificent, ancient, peaceful creatures. But - they are not locals! Four specimens of Aldabra giant tortoises were a gift from the governor of Seychelles in 1919.

They found Prison Island a great environment and bred freely. Today, many tortoises are welcoming you, and the first settlers are still among them! There is also a nursery for baby tortoises, where you can see baby tortoises of different ages. A great encounter for everyone, especially for kids!

With its fantastic white sandy beach and Spectacular natural forest teeming with variety of birds and small animals such peacocks and giant tortoises. The island is very famous for its richness in water based natural attractions hence it is one among the best sites for diving and snorkeling as well.

Upon your return admire the breathtaking view of Stone Town, the bay, and the archipelago.

This half day tour can be combined with several tours to make your full day excursions. Here are some tours that can be combined with the Prison Island tour: - Snorkeling around the coral reefs near the island, Spice tour, Stone town tour, Nakupenda sandbank picnic tour, etc.

Local Fishing- Explore the traditional way of fishing

Zanzibar fishing is an interesting tour for those who like to explore the traditional way of fishing. Unlike the deep sea fishing, the Zanzibar fishing uses, wooden sailing dhow (Ngalawa), and local fishing equipments. The excursion starts around 10:00 am; we leave the beach towards Prison and Bawe islands where the boat stops for fishing. We choose this place since is mostly known for schools of tropical fish within a protected coral reefs. Our well experienced and dedicated fishermen, will show you the fishing techniques, even if you have no knowledge of fishing, with our experienced fishermen, you will be able to fish. Our fisherman will assist you to lower the lines attached with hook at the end until hit the bottom of the sea and then waiting for catching fish. Discover how the most locals catch fish.

The tour goes further to the sand bank; you will stay at the sand bank while you eat your Zanzibari stylish lunch, with soft drinks.

On returning to Zanzibar island, we will take you to see the colourful and bustling fish market where the fresh catches of the day are auctioned.

Spice Tour – Zanzibar for Mouth and Nose

Take a day to explore the industry that put the Zanzibar Islands on the map and learn more about the island's rich history. On this three hours guided tour, you will explore the various spices of Zanzibar which are used in almost every kitchen on earth, such as cinnamon, cloves, black pepper, garlic, lemongrass, turmeric, ginger, vanilla, nutmeg, and more. The eographical nature of the islands means that spice tours are organized in many villages in both Unguja and Pemba. However, the most popular towns for spice tours are Kijichi and Kizimbani, located about 8 kilometers from Stone Town.

You will learn how the island got its nickname in the 15th century and learn about growing and harvesting spice plants. You'll find out why pepper and cloves were so valuable, and you'll probably find out for the first time that nutmeg wrap is also a very special spice. The queen of spices, cinnamon, has many healing properties in addition to its intoxicating aroma.To leave you in a frenzy, we won't reveal all the spices you'll smell, observe, touch, and taste. The tour finishes with a stop at a spice stall selling fresh packaged spices (cash only).

Dolphin tour - Kizimkazi

The starts after breakfast when you are picked up from your hotel and transferred to the fishing village of Kizimkazi. Before the tour begins, you will be given a life jacket demonstration followed by a briefing on the day's excursion. You will then board the dhows and set off in search of the dolphins (85% chance). Species frequently found in Menai Bay are the Spinner and Bottlenose dolphins.

You will be able to swim with the dolphins as long as they stay close to the boat, but it is unlikely that you will be able to touch them as they are of course wild animals. During the tour, the guide will send you to one of the selected places to dive. On the way to your hotel, you will have the opportunity to visit the site of a 12th century mosque, the oldest evidence of Islam in East Africa and therefore worth visiting for both natural and cultural reasons.

This half day tour can be combined with several tours to make your full day excursions. Here are some tours that can be combined with Rock restaurant, photo spot for unforgettable memories, Jozani forest tour, etc.

Jozani forest Tour– Our Jungle and Our Unique Monkeys

Explore the Jozani Forest, the magic of its mangroves and the Red Colobus Monkey, one of the rarest primates in Africa that can only be found in Zanzibar. During a guided forest trip, you'll quickly learn about the different species of monkeys unique to Zanzibar (and yes, thumbless). After your tour of the forest and a short jump to the other side of the national park, there is the opportunity to discover the magical world of the mangroves of Zanzibar. Walk the wooden path and you will see thousands of crabs working under the mangroves and if you are lucky you may even hear the mangroves talking. See for yourself.

This tour gives you the opportunity to see, have fun, take photos and videos of the Colón red monkey and other species found in that forest. This is the best area to explore once you are in Zanzibar on vacation.

Safari blue - Menai Bay, Mangroves and Khwale Island

Departing from Fumba, you head on a traditional wooden dhow to your first snorkeling stop. On the way, hopefully you will come across dolphins, playing in the shallow marine park of Menai Bay. The reefs that surround the sandbank are your second snorkeling trip; the underwater world will look very different compared to your first stop.

Enjoy the short journey with your boat to your last stop where you arrive at beautiful Kwale Island, and our crew will be waiting for you! Depending on the tides, you can make a stop in a very special place, where our boats will take you to the world of an island full of mangroves to swim. The tidal lagoon has centuries of history stored in its coral. It is a different swimming experience with warm waters and an impressive location for photographs. Other activities on the island include a short jungle hike to view and climb a 500-year-old baobab tree.

Special information

¥ Pack sunscreen and a hat for your boat excursion, as you will be out in the sun all day. Please bring a towel and your bathing suit, as you have the possibility to swim and snorkel during the trip.

¥ Please do not buy large shells or coral from local suppliers, as it promotes the destruction of our fragile marine ecosystem.

¥ It is recommended to wear shoes that are easy to put on and take off and that will not be damaged by water. Watch out for sea urchins when you are barefoot on the beach (they are not dangerous but can be painful).

Masingini Forest Tour - It is one of the key forests of Zanzibar

The Masingini indigenous forest is the one of the key forests of Zanzibar Islands, recognized for its rare flora and fauna, including the Zanzibar red colobus monkey. Other species found in the forest include various trees and shrubs, unique to the Islands of Zanzibar, that are used for their medical value.

The forest is also home to a small antelope mammal called the Blue Duicker that thrives in forest environments where it can hunt for leaves, seeds, and fruit and find everything from small insects to rodents to consume. Small animals such as elephant mouse shrews, snakes, and reptiles, as well as arthropods and insects, roam the Masingini forest floor. Here it is quite possible to meet the African giant millipedes that can grow up to 40 centimeters long, have more than 250 legs and a lifespan of 7 years. The forest also has a great variety of butterfly species.

The forest is at the highest point of about 120 m above sea level. This is a unique place due to the existence of more than 35 gullies that gave rise to the name 'MASINGINI'.

This half day tour can be combined with several tours to make your full day excursions. Here are some tours that can be combined with Spice Tour, Jozani Forest Tour, Nungwi Beach Leisure, etc.

Deep sea fishing

We organize deep sea fishing from Zanzibar on the far north of the island. Advantageously, this allows our clients to enjoy some of the best offshore fishing grounds in Africa.

The channel between Zanzibar and Pemba in particular, is an internationally renowned site consistently providing first-rate big game fishing opportunities. With large schools of Barracuda, Wahoo, Kingfish and Giant Travelli in the area all year round, and seasonal visits from many other species such as Marlin, big game fishing with Zanzibar Watersports will be thrilling experience you will never forget!

Three professional deep sea fishing boats are on offer. Joint Venture, Timimi and Suli Suli are all equipped to the highest international safety standards, all boats are inspected every year by the marine authorities and all have passed every time with flying colours. Also equip them with the latest fishing technology with GPS navigational devices, echo sounders and fish finders.

Half and full day charters are available on all the boats and if you would like to do a longer trip then three or five day charters to Pemba, Mafia Island and Latham Island can also be arranged on Joint Venture, which is fully set up for up to five people.

A full set of tackle is provided with Shimano and Penn International rods and reels, spooled with 80lb, 50lb, 30lb or 20lb mono lines. Clients who wish to use their own lighter tackle are welcome (we comply with the IGFA fly fishing regulations). Our experienced skippers and crew have been fishing in these waters for decades, and have specialised in big game fishing for the last 10years. They are always happy to instruct novices and talk anglers through any procedure in the course of reeling in their catch, or just give hints and tips to improve your technique.

Island Hopping Tour

This sea outing takes you island hopping between historical Prison Island and a pristine sand bank (Nakupenda Beach) - the vibrant colors of the ocean, for an idyllic island experience.

Prison Island is located off the western coast of Zanzibar and accessible with a 30 minutes motorized dhow boat ride across amazing hues of sea blues and greens. The island takes its name from the prison that was built there in 1893. At a later stage, the buildings served as a quarantine hospital. The sea trip offers the opportunity to catch a view of historical Stone Town. Today, only the ruins of the building remain from these days as well as a frangipani lined path around the island where the former patients took their evening walks. Here you can admire beautiful peacocks flaunting their spectacular tail of feathers as well catch a close view of giant century old Seychelles tortoises. The excursion allows ample time to stroll around, venture into the forested interior, have a swim or just relax on a white sandy beach by the alluring lagoon.

Around midday, embark for the pristine setting and pleasures of an idyllic and almost desert sand bank (Nakupenda Beach) cast away amidst crystal-clear aquamarine waters.

Nakupenda Beach stands out for its emerald blue shades of sea water. Framed by white coastal sand under deep blue skies, the landscapes are especially picturesque. Visiting tourists are impressed by the color and friendliness of local residents, which complement the overall picture of a paradise.

It is located near Stone Town in the western part of the island. The infrastructure is all imported, as well as visitors - tourists. However, they all unanimously insist that this is the best place, and it is worth getting to it and seeing everything with your own eyes.

There, you will be served lunch and thereafter just allow yourself to drift away revel in elementary pleasures – soak up the sun, go for refreshing dips and snorkel leisurely around, immersed in the natural splendor of the tropical marine world with its amazing array of colored coral and fish. Just revel in a sheer moment out of this world, out of time. You will feel as close as can be to paradise.

Safari in Tanzania

There are many National Parks in Tanzania that, a difference is made between the ‘Northern Circuit’ and the ‘Southern Circuit’.

The Northern Circuit, which includes famous areas such as the Ngorongoro Crater and the Serengeti, is more frequently visited, but therefore also more touristic since is a home to the great migration.

Away from the more famous landscapes of the Serengeti, the wilds of southern Tanzania are home to some of the last untouched wilderness areas left in East Africa. Amongst the rich game-lands of the Selous and the Ruaha, you can find populations of elephant, wild dogs, antelope and big cats that are equal to anything on the continent.

From Kilimanjaro climbs, camping to luxury safaris, our reservation team has perfect knowledge about African wildlife, culture and history. Our packages also introduce you to the many cultures in the region, from the Hadzabe people, the last bushmen in Africa, to the proud Maasai.
