Restaurant

Hotel's restaurant Cisterna Brasserie offers an experience-oriented taste journey surrounded by the Byzantine ruins. The chef brings together global and local flavors with experimental and innovative interpretations.

RADISSON Individuals.

During the construction of our hotel Royan Hotel Hagia Sophia, which is located in the heart of İstanbul's Old City Sultanahmet, ancient Byzantine ruins are discovered and exhibited in hotel's restaurant Cisterna Brasserie.

RADISSON
Individuals.

The walls that you see are assessed as the ruins of a huge closed cistern located in the area which was called "Topoi"(meaning "Places") during 8-11th century Middle Byzantine Period, near the Grand Palace where the Byzantine Emperors resided. Our Hotel's restaurant Cisterna Brasserie takes its name after this ancient Byzantine cistern.
