Overview

This 4-day private safari takes you through three of the most popular parks in northern Tanzania: Tarangire National Park, Serengeti National Park, and the Ngorongoro Crater. It's the perfect adventure for travelers who want to see a wide range of wildlife and experience the different landscapes that make Tanzania so special. You'll have your own private safari vehicle and guide, giving you the flexibility to travel at your own pace and focus on what interests you most.

You'll begin your journey in Tarangire, known for its large herds of elephants and beautiful baobab trees. From there, you'll continue to the endless plains of the Serengeti, were big cats and herds of animal's roam freely. Finally, you'll explore the Ngorongoro Crater, a stunning natural wonder filled with thousands of animals living inside the walls of an ancient volcano. Along the way, you'll enjoy warm hospitality at comfortable lodges and camps, with delicious meals and peaceful nights in nature. This safari is a great way to experience the best of Tanzania in just a few days.

Itinerary

Day 1: Arusha to Tarangire National Park

After breakfast, your safari begins with a drive from Arusha to Tarangire National Park, which takes you about 2-3 hours. This park is famous for its large number of elephants, ancient baobab trees, and the Tarangire River, which attracts animals all year round. You'll enjoy a full-day game drive, stopping to watch giraffes, zebras, lions, and many types of birds. In the late afternoon, you'll leave the park and head to the nearby town of Karatu, where you'll rest for the night in a comfortable lodge.

- Meals: Lunch, Dinner
  Accommodation: Overnight in Karatu (mid-range lodge)

Day 2: Karatu to Serengeti National Park

After an early breakfast, you'll begin your journey to the Serengeti, passing through the Ngorongoro Conservation Area. The drive is long but very scenic, with chances to see wildlife along the way. You'll arrive in the Serengeti around midday and begin your first game drive in the park. You'll explore the central part of the Serengeti, which is known for its open plains and large animal populations. You might see lions resting under acacia trees, elephants crossing the plains, or cheetahs scanning the grass for prey.

- Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
  Accommodation: Overnight inside Serengeti National Park (mid-range tented camp)

Day 3: Serengeti to Ngorongoro Crater

This morning, you'll enjoy another game drive in the Serengeti, taking in the fresh morning air and searching for animals you may not have seen yet. It's one of the best times to see predators like lions or hyenas active before the heat of the day. After the game drive and lunch, you'll leave the Serengeti and drive back toward the Ngorongoro crater, with more wildlife viewing along the way. You'll arrive near the crater rim in the late afternoon, just in time to relax and enjoy the view.

- Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
  Accommodation: Overnight near Ngorongoro Crater (mid-range lodge)

Day 4: Ngorongoro Crater to Arusha

After an early breakfast, you'll descend into the Ngorongoro Crater for a half-day game drive. This area is one of the best places in Africa to see many types of animals in one place. You might spot rhinos, buffalo, wildebeest, flamingos, hippos, and lions — all living inside the crater. After a picnic lunch near a waterhole, you'll begin the drive back to Arusha, arriving in the late afternoon. You'll be dropped off at your hotel or the airport, depending on your plans.
