It is also known as "The First Pasture in the South" and "Oriental Switzerland." The area also features Wave Road, a winding road resembling ocean waves, which has become a popular highway spot on social media.

HARI 3 WULONG – CHONGQING (B/L)

After breakfast, you will visit a Local Specialty Supermarket. The journey then continues with a visit to the Kuixing Building 1st Floor and 22nd Floor Observation Deck. This unique building connects the 1st floor of one structure with the 22nd floor of the opposite building. You will enter from what appears to be the 1st floor, but when you look down, you will see 22 floors beneath you. Next, you will visit the Liberation Monument, which is listed among the 'Ten New Landmarks of Chengdu–Chongqing Cultural Tourism'.

After that, you will stroll along Liberation Monument Walking Street and Bayi Road Food Street, where you can sample Chongqing's local specialties at your own expense. In the afternoon, you will enjoy the main scenery at Hongya Cave, formerly known as Hongya Gate, which was one of the gates of old Chongqing. Here, you can admire the traditional Bayu-style architecture known as Diaojiaolou.

HARI 4 CHONGQING (B/L)

After breakfast, you will visit a Herbal Medicine Center. Then, you will proceed to Chongqing Republic Street, a thematic area featuring the atmosphere of 'Republic of China history' and 'Bayu characteristics', located within the Chongqing Liangjiang International Film and Television City. This street was an important filming location for the movie '1942', directed by the renowned filmmaker Feng Xiaogang.

The buildings along Chongqing Republic Street are inspired by famous architecture and scenery from Chongqing during the Republic of China era. The area features landmarks such as Cathay Theater, Xinhua Daily, Xinya Coffee, Palace Photo Studio, as well as several museums, bars, shops, a hot pot museum, and a camera museum.
