Bicycle Tour Villages of the Tránsito Valley

Duration: halfday

General description:
Pedaling we discover different places and villages of the "Indian Valley".
We get to know its river and landscapes, costums, traditions and handcrafts of its inhabitants.
Thanks to the Tránsito River there's diverse native vegetation and cultivation of various fruits as for example grapes, figs, oranges, lemons, pomegranates, guavas, mangoes and many more.
This traditionally agricultural desert valley is inhabited mainly by people belonging to the Diaguita indigenous ethnic group who still preserve various customs, craft techniques, ways of building and festivities.
