Bicycle Tour Tránsito Valley downhill

Duration: halfday

General description:
In the remote little village of Chollay in the Andean foothills of Huasco Province we begin our tour. By bicycle we ride on the edge of Chollay River, which – reaching the main valley – meets the Conay River and both form the Tránsito River
We descend through the valley of the same name also known as "Indian Valley" passing different villages and landscapes.
You can appreciate the ambience full of contrasts offered by this fertile valley which meanders through Atacama's desert environment and get to know its hidden corners, its fruits and its characteristic handicrafts.
The activity is adaptable with public transport from/to Vallenar.

Difficulty: medium

Capacity: 2 - 8 participants

Season: possible during the whole year

Itinerary: Chollay – Conay – Los Tambos – El Parral – La Pampa – La Angostura - La Arena (Chollay is accessible by public transport)

Tour includes:
Spanish speaking guide, introduction speech, mountainbike including its transport, equipment (helmet, air pump, repair kit), snack, mineral water (1 ½ l), first aid kit, wireless set, GPS

Optional (additional cost):
-English- or German speaking guide
