The Highlights of Tanzania Group Tour:

Day 1: Experience The Massive Elephant Herds In Tarangire Park

0700AM: You'll depart from Arusha after breakfast and begin the two-hour drive to Tarangire National Park. Along the way you'll take in the changing landscape as Arusha's urban jungle is replaced by wide open plains and quaint Masai villages. Checking in at the park offers a good chance to see mischievous monkeys darting about in the shade and you can also pose with a gigantic Baobab at the park's entrance.

Once inside the park, you'll see the eponymous Tarangire river lined with acacia and Baobab where game amble to and from throughout the day. During the dry season, thousands of animals from the Masai steppe migrate to the Tarangire region looking for water so you can see dozens of different species in a small amount of time.

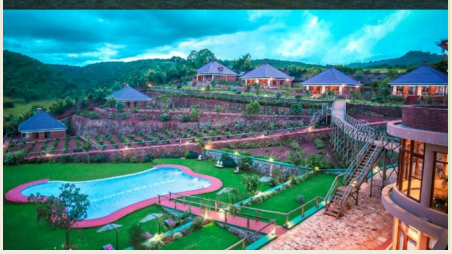

Exclusive to the park are endangered animals such as the Greater Kudu, Fringe-Eared Oryx, and the Ashy Starling.

Mid-day, you will stop at a picturesque location where you will enjoy a "bush lunch" in the open air. later spending the afternoon, see an amazing range of wildlife. In the evening proceed to Karatu Village for overnight stay with Meals on full board basis

Day 2: Let your imagination soar in Serengeti National Park

After a hearty breakfast, prepare for an unforgettable day as you embark on a scenic journey to Serengeti National Park.

The route takes you through the breathtaking Ngorongoro Highlands, offering spectacular vistas of the surrounding landscapes.

Enjoy lunch "on the road" as you traverse the magnificent terrain.

If culture and history are of interest, make a detour to Olduvai Gorge and Shifting Sands, where the Leakey's made fascinating paleoanthropological discoveries (at additional cost)

Your destination is the heart of Serengeti National Park, particularly the area around the Seronera River. This region teems with diverse wildlife, including majestic predators like lions, leopards, and cheetahs, as well as the herbivores they prey upon.

Dinner and overnight accommodation await you at your camp, nestled within this remarkable wilderness.

Day 3: The Serengeti all to yourself

Today promises an entire day of thrilling safaris within the expansive Serengeti Park.

Drive along the picturesque shores of the Seronera River, in search of unforgettable moments and insights into the daily lives of the park's wild inhabitants. Keep an eye out for the extraordinary spectacle of wildebeest crossing the river, the grace of a hunting cheetah, the regal presence of lions, and the majestic silhouette of a giraffe on the horizon.

Explore areas less frequented by the general public, allowing for a unique off-the-beaten-path experience. Your route follows the movements and migrations of the park's diverse wildlife across the vast plains.

Game drives: There are two game drives each day: one first thing in the morning, the other in the late afternoon.

Walking safaris: One of the most exciting ways to explore the Serengeti is on foot. When you step down from the vehicle, appreciate all the small things that you miss on a game drive. Identify butterflies, ants, termites, and dung beetles, or get closer to birds when they're not startled by the engine noise. A great opportunity to learn about how the whole Serengeti ecosystem works.

Return to your camp in the evening, where you can relish the day's adventures.

A highlight awaits you this day as you depart to explore what is commonly referred to as the world's largest natural wildlife arena. After breakfast, you depart with a picnic lunch through the early morning mists into the Ngorongoro crater.

You'll stop at the Ngorongoro viewing area for a stunning view of the caldera's sheer scale. From here you'll continue our descent into the caldera, where over 120 species of mammals go about their lives. The park is the best place in the northern circuit to see the black rhinoceros and the cape buffalo, but is home to the entirety of the Big Five. We'll also see large packs of hyenas as well as lesser known predators such as jackals and serval cats.

A picnic lunch by the famous hippo pool is also a surreal experience, as you'll take your lunch a few feet from where great hippopotamus wallow lazily in the cool water

In the late afternoon, with heads full of amazing memories, you will drive back to the vibrant town of Arusha. From here, you will proceed to Kilimanjaro Airport, where you will catch your onward flight.

Your safari adventure concludes here, but the memories of Tanzania's remarkable landscapes and wildlife will stay with you forever. We hope you've enjoyed this safari experience and leave with a heart full of cherished moments.
