DINNER IN THE SKY

In a vibrant metropolis like Dubai, there are plenty of options for dinner with a view. But the gravty defying 'Dinner in the Sky' takes this concept to a whole new level. Enjoy the exclusive opportunity to tuck into a lavish meal 50 metres above the ground. Located at Skydive Dubai, the experience allows for a group of 22 guests to be hoisted 50 metres in the air to take in views of the city while enjoying an array of curated gourmet delights. Staff members will serve your meal, put together on board by a dedicated chef. The experience lasts for about 90 minutes, including 30 minutes to seat and unseat diners and 60 minutes of flight and food time. Enjoy a delectable blend of fine flavours, exquisite views and a sense of adventure with this one-of-a-kind epicurean memory.

SHEIKH MOHAMMED CENTRE FOR CULTURAL UNDERSTANDING (SMCCU)

Gain a greater appreciation of Dubai's culture and customs at the Sheikh Mohammed Centre for Cultural Understanding (SMCCU).

Since opening in 1998, the SMCCU has been helping visitors get a better understanding of the culture and customs of the UAE. The centre invites visitors to take part in their full schedule of activities, including a range of Arabic classes, heritage tours and guided mosque visits. Seeing the location itself is worth the visit – it's a beautifully restored wind tower house in the historic Al Fahidi Historical Neighbourhood.

Among SMCCU's wide range of activities is their traditional Emirati breakfast, lunch or dinner, a popular option with visitors. Take a seat on Bedouin-style carpets and pillows while you enjoy a selection of dishes and your local host answers questions about life in the emirate.

With its motto 'Open Doors, Open Minds' all questions are welcome and answered, no matter how sensitive they are.

WATCH THE SUNSET FROM WORLD'S TALLEST BUILDING

Dominating the skyline, the Burj Khalifa structure towers over Downtown Dubai at a staggering 2,723 ft (830 meter). Soaring high at 555 meters, At the Top, Burj Khalifa SKY is fittingly Dubai's most iconic destination. Take the world's fastest elevator to the clouds as you ascend Dubai's iconic Burj Khalifa skyscraper during sunset. See the sights for miles from the observation deck balcony of the world's tallest building. Learn about the architecture and technology behind this Middle Eastern icon while feasting your eyes on live and historic views of the city with one of the deck's telescopes. Get ready to enjoy exclusive access to the redefined, highest outdoor observatory in the world, spread across levels 148 and 125 of Burj Khalifa. Your journey begins when you step into the At the Top, Burj Khalifa SKY lounge, from where you will be personally escorted to a dedicated elevator.

TAKE TO THE SKIES OVER DUBAI

Admire everything from above with Skydive Dubai, one of the world's best in aerial sports. Experience a breathtaking free-fall through the skies of Dubai at the iconic Palm Jumeirah or over the Arabian desert.

Although Dubai is an impressive sight from the ground, flying high above takes things to new heights. The glorious year round sunshine in Dubai makes skydiving the perfect activity to enjoy the beautiful weather and pristine views.

If you have no experience, you don't need to worry. The instructors will guide you through the whole process including a demonstration before even setting foot on a plane. Both the skydive locations in Dubai are world-renowned, with the best qualified instructors to gently guide you back on to the ground.

And for the experienced, you can explore more advanced options like tandem skydiving, solo skydiving and the flight school. The dedicated flight school teaches you multiple forms like freefly, canopy, formation, wingsuit coaching and free load organising.

Take home the experience too, with a video of you skydive, thanks to the talented videographers at Skydive Dubai. You'll have a memory of a lifetime captured for you to enjoy forever.

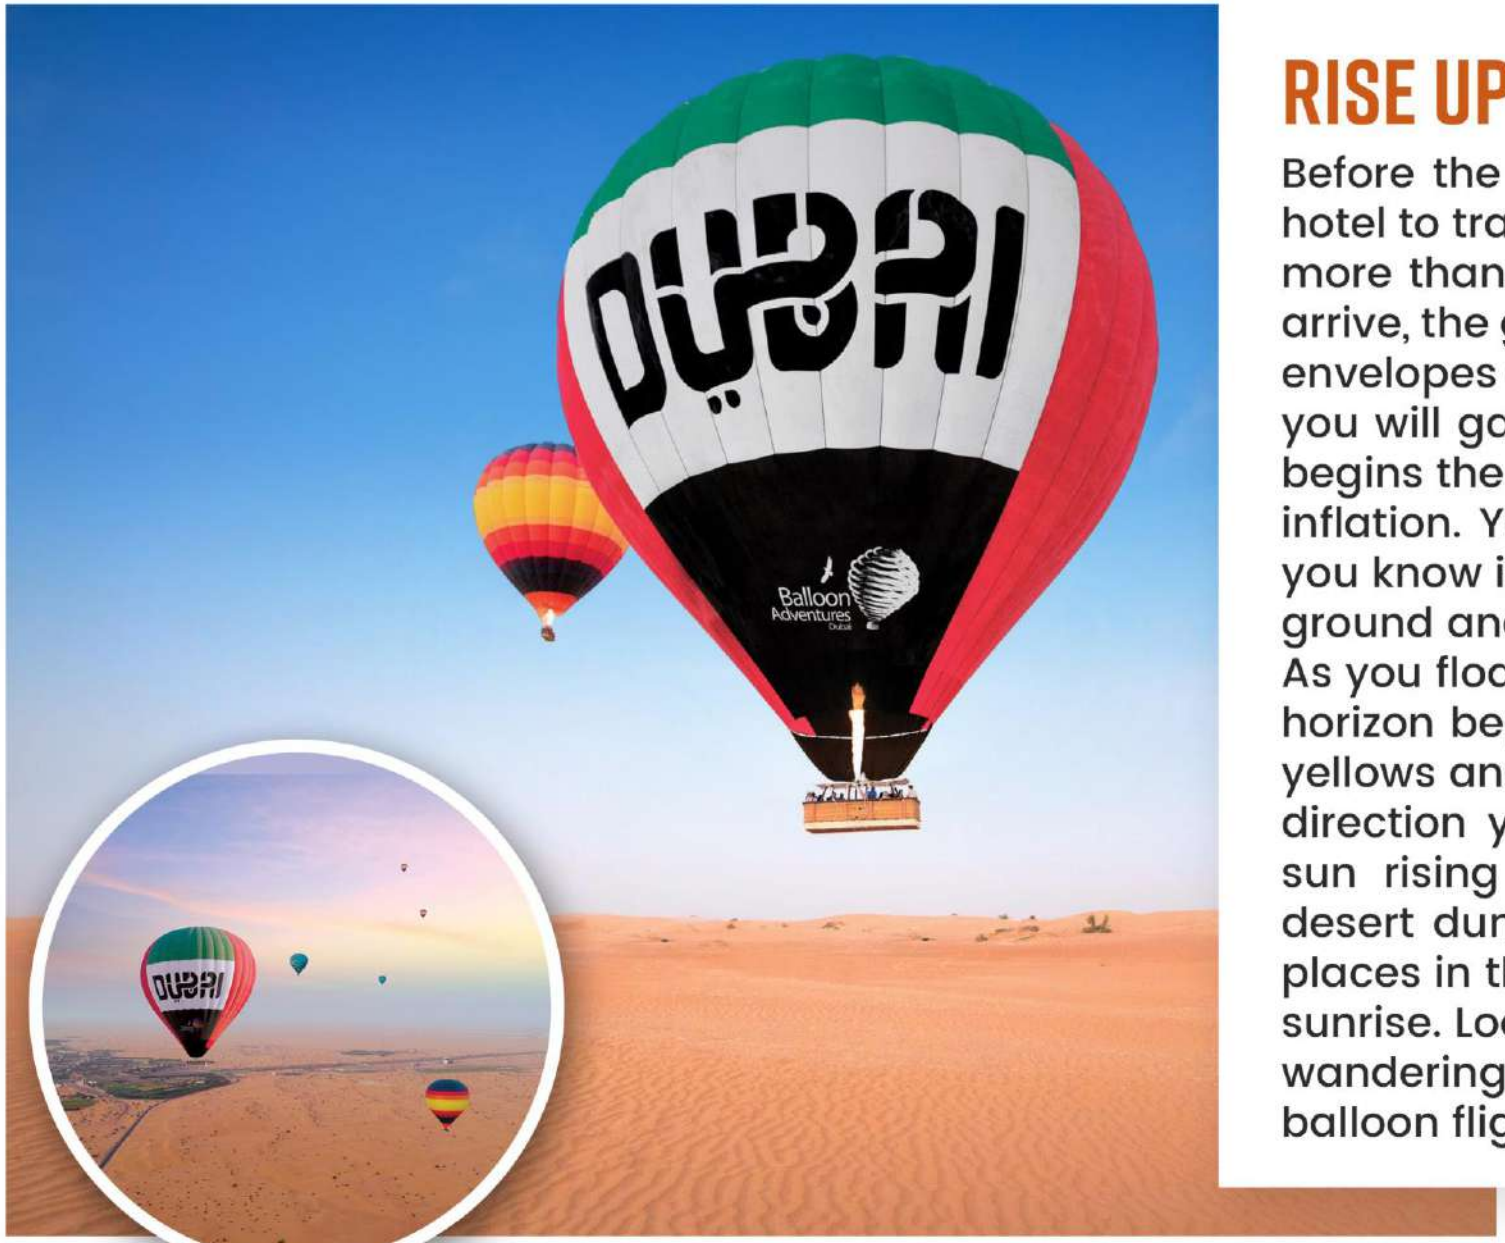

GO SKIING IN THE INDOOR SKI PARK

A fun day out for the entire family awaits at the very first indoor ski resort in the region! With diverse activities that are sure to bring a smile to anyone's face, Ski Dubai, located in Mall of the Emirates offers a variety of activities and gives you a chance to ski, snowboard, toboggan, zip line, take a chairlift ride and enjoy the views or just take part in a friendly snowball fight with friends and family in our Snow Park and experience a penguin encounter all under one roof. Enjoy an unbelievable experience with one of our incredible Slope packages available to all. Hit the slopes and find out why this winter attraction has been ranked among one of the top ten activities in Dubai.

RISE UP IN A HOT AIR BALLOON

Before the sun rises we will pick you up from your hotel to travel to the take-off point in the desert not more than a 45-minute drive from the city. As you arrive, the ground crew will be preparing the balloon envelopes and baskets. After a quick safety briefing, you will gather around your basket while your Pilot begins the thrilling process of inflation. You will climb into the basket and before you know it, you will begin to peacefully float off the ground and ascend into the sky.

As you float up in the sky, the hues along the horizon begin to transform into beautiful shades of yellows and oranges. Depending on which direction you are facing, you will see the Arabian sun rising behind the Hajar mountains over the desert dunes. 4,000ft in the sky is one of the best places in the world to witness the beauty of the sunrise. Look out for Arabian oryx, gazelles or wandering camels in the sand dunes below. Every balloon flight is approximately 1 hour long.

DISCOVER ISLAMIC HERITAGE AT THE QURANIC PARK

The newly opened Quranic Park offers a wonderful insight into the Holy Quran, Islam's holy book.

Free to enter for all, there are a variety of surprises spread across the 60-hectare park, which aims to enhance Islamic values of peace, love and tolerance. Discover the different plants mentioned in the holy book or simply take in the lush greens of the Islamic garden. Alternatively, you can stroll through the striking desert-themed or Andalucian gardens too.

For a small fee of AED10 each, visitors can also enter the Glass House – home to an inspiring collection of plants mentioned in the religious text – or the Cave of Miracles, which illustrates some of the most remarkable events mentioned in the Quran with the help of interactive technology.

Other facilities at the park include cycling and walking paths, an outdoor theatre, artfully-designed solar trees and on-site Wi-Fi.

EXPERIENCE A LUXURY DESERT SAFARI

Enjoy a regal safari experience in a Mercedes G-Wagon that will take you across the gorgeous sandy deserts of the UAE for dune bashing before landing at a private royal desert retreat for an authentic Arabian experience. The experience is luxurious from the moment you step into the decades-old off-roading iconic SUV all the way as you enjoy a sumptuous dinner on the royal grounds in an exclusive campsite replete with cultural activities.

STAY DRY AT SHARJAH'S RAIN ROOM

Random International's immersive installation Rain Room (2012) invites you to walk through a downpour of continuous rain without getting wet. The responsive environment follows visitors as they navigate the darkened underground space, preventing the rain from falling directly above any detected human presence.

This site-specific installation uses 2,500 litres of self-cleaning recycled water, which is controlled through a system of networked 3D tracking cameras. The work explores how humankind's relationships to one another and to nature are increasingly mediated through intangible technologies.

Sharjah's Rain Room marks the Middle East premiere and the first permanent installation of this project by Random International.The Rain Room building has been designed by Sharjah Art Foundation and the UAE-based SpaceContinuum Design Studio in collaboration with Shape Architecture Practice + Research, Sharjah.Opened in May 2018, Rain Room is part of the Sharjah Art Foundation Collection and the first of a series of artist-designed permanent spaces.

EXPLORE THE SKY LIKE JAMES BOND IN A GYROCOPTER

If you're looking for a thrilling experience that's closer to the ground, take flight with Skyhub's Gyrocopter. The two seat, unique aircraft delivers an exclusive experience at 1,500 ft, as you are flown by one of our trusted pilots.

The 20-minute flight route takes you along the coast and provides views of some of Dubai's most iconic sites, including Ain Dubai (the world's largest Ferris wheel), Palm Jumeirah Island, Atlantis, The Palm, The World' islands and the majestic Burj Al Arab.

MARVEL AT SHEIKH ZAYED GRAND MOSQUE

The Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque stands out as one of the world's largest mosques, and the only one that captures unique interactions between Islam and world cultures. Sheikh Zayed's vision for the Grand Mosque was to incorporate architectural styles from different Muslim civilizations and celebrate cultural diversity by creating a haven that is truly diverse and inspirational in its foundation. The mosque's architects were British, Italian and Emirati, and design inspiration was borrowed parts of Turkey, Morocco, Pakistan, and Egypt among other Islamic countries, revealing a glistening architectural marvel with an astonishing capacity of 40,000 worshippers and visitors.

The open-door policy invites tourists and celebrants from all around the world who can witness the spectacular onion-top domes, the reflective pools that engulf the courtyard and the iconic prayer hall, which not only overflows with blissful sunlight, but also houses the world's biggest chandelier and carpet, both meticulously handmade. Be sure to spot the calligraphy encircling the hollows of the domes, etched with verses from the Quran and painted with gold leaves in An-Naskh lettering.

VISIT THE SEVEN-STAR HOTEL

Experience the height of Arabian hospitality

Burj Al Arab Jumeirah is one of the most famous landmarks and tourist attractions in Dubai. The luxury all-suite hotel includes a range of fine-dining restaurants, incredible beaches and the expansive Burj Al Arab Terrace, as well as an incredible guest list of VIPs and celebrities from all over the world.

Since opening in 1999, the sail-shaped building has helped put Dubai on the global luxury tourism map. Built on its own island, its unique structure rises 321m, providing guests an amazing hotel room view of the Arabian Gulf.

With gold interiors, lavish suites and some of Dubai's best restaurants, it's no surprise the Burj Al Arab is often considered among the best places to stay in Dubai, alongside many five-star hotels. In fact, it is often regaled as a 'seven-star' hotel.

Guests can take their pick from an underwater restaurant and aquarium, a fleet of Rolls-Royce cars on the forecourt and the famous helipad that has hosted the likes of Tiger Woods, Anthony Joshua and Roger Federer.

PERFECT YOUR SWING AT A TOP GOLF COURSE

As golf in the region grows, the UAE has spearheaded its popularity with some fantastic courses throughout the country. There are 23 golf clubs in United Arab Emirates. The most popular golf course is Emirates Golf Club Dubai. Abu Dhabi Golf Club is the best golf course of United Arab Emirates and the numebers are slowly growing. The Majority of clubs gravitate to Dubai and Abu Dhabi but there are also clubs in Ras Al Khaimah and Sharjah.

As most people knows, the best golf courses were in Dubai, and the cream of the crop for many years was the Majlis Couse at The Emirates Club, home of the renowned Dubai Desert Classic. Bur new of the scene are two Dubai Courses from Greg Norman at Jumeirah Golf Estates, called Fire and Earth.

However, the new Kyle Phillips and Gray Player creations of Yas Links and Saadiyat Beach have combined with the National Course to elevate the capital, Abu Dhabi, to a level that perhaps even exceeds Dubai.

DUNE BUGGY TOUR

Buggy Safaris offers a new dimension to off-road exploring.

Ride one of the twin-seater, 800cc buggies and set off on this unique adventure around the Dubai Desert. Explore the region's majestic sand dunes, climbing up and over peaks and valleys, and taking in the amazing scenery.

Your guide will show you the best routes to take and will make sure you ride at a pace that you find comfortable. If you're feeling a bit tired, stop for a breather and some refreshments before heading off into the sandy dunes once again.

For your comfort and safety each dune buggy comes equipped with a full roll cage, bucket seats, and a full safety harness. You can also choose to book this tour in a group of 2, sharing the buggy between the two of you.

Finally, for the perfect end to an exhilarating day, book your tour with a barbecue dinner at the end!

HEAD OUTSIDE THE CITY FOR A CAMEL RACE COMPETITION

Camels are an important part of Emirati culture that dates back to its roots. In the past, camels were said to be God's gifts to the Bedouin, as these animals often made life in the desert possible, providing everything from transportation, to clothes and even food.

Nowadays, camels are a symbol of the local culture, as well as an attraction for tourists to ride. Camel racing is also still a huge part of Emirati culture and life today. In recent times, camel racing has become a traditional sport in the UAE and preparing a camel to race takes effort and time.

This is a spectacular sport and a trip to the races can be one of the most memorable highlights of a visit to UAE. Cheer on the camels as they gallop around a specially made track, and marvel at how these seemingly ungainly creatures can reach such high speeds. Races normally take place on weekend mornings, with additional races on public holidays.

Although the races start fairly early from 7am to 9am, it's well worth your while to pay this unique sport a visit. You'll notice plenty of tourists making their way to Camel Racing track to experience this must-see attraction showcasing Arabian culture and heritage.

SHOP AT THE WORLD'S BIGGEST MALL (MORE THAN JUST A SHOPPING MALL)

The Dubai Mall is the world's largest destination for shopping, entertainment and leisure, located next to the world's tallest building, the Burj Khalifa. Featuring over 1,200 retail stores, two major department stores and hundreds of food and beverage outlets, the mall covers more than 1 million sqm equivalent to 200 football pitches.

The Dubai Mall is the ultimate family entertainment destination with The Dubai Aquarium and Underwater Zoo, an Olympic sized Dubai Ice Rink, children's 'edutainment' concept Kidzania, a massive indoor cinema complex and The Village with a retractable roof that opens during the winter months.

For lovers of high fashion, over 70 signature outlets will beckon for your attention. For haute couture, head to Fashion Avenue where you can experience the latest collections from world renowned designers. You can also find fine jewellery in the Gold Souk as well as the latest in footwear at Level Shoes.

PLATINUM HERITAGE

Experience the most awarded Desert Safari in Dubai. Take a step back in time and experience Dubai as it was in the 1950s on an adventure in the Dubai desert with a professional Conservation Guide.

Unlike any other Dubai Desert Safari, we will take you on a fascinating wildlife drive in 1950's vintage Land Rovers. As the first motorised vehicles used in the Dubai desert, these Series 1 and 2 Land Rovers have become symbolic of Dubai's heritage and venturing to unexplored territories.

Spot native wildlife like Arabian oryx in the Dubai Desert Conservation Reserve and stop at a Ghaf tree forest in the dunes for the most spectacular photo opportunities in the desert. Learn about the unique desert ecosystem and discover how the Bedouin survived in the desert in harmony with the desert animals and plant life.

Witness a spectacular falcon show led by a professional Falconer and watch these magnificent birds in full flight. Learn about ancient training techniques and how the Bedouin used falcons for hunting. Watch the Arabian sun setting as the backdrop over the sand dunes.

Afterwards, arrive at an authentic Bedouin camp, gently lit with traditional lamps and nestled inside a private desert retreat. Discover the rich culture and traditions of Dubai's heritage with live demonstrations of Arabic coffee and bread making, henna painting, camel rides and traditional performances. Feast on a 4-course dinner under the stars, afterwards relax in our Arabic Majilis area and try some shisha (hubbly bubbly) if you desire.

History comes to life in this once-in-a-lifetime Desert Safari in Dubai!
