MAJIKA TOUR AGENCY

BEST TOURS TO NEW UZBEKISTAN

8 day Budjet tour to Uzbekistan

Tashkent – Urgench – Khiva – Bukhara – Samarkand – Tashkent

Day 1 Tashkent - Urgench - Khiva

Your driver will meet you when you arrive at Tashkent Airport. Then, with a local guide, we start our Tashkent tour. First, we go to Khast-Imam Square. It has giant mausoleums and schools. They keep old and important treasures, like the Osman Quran. This ancient book, from the 7th century, is the only one left. We will see more city jewels, too. We visit another mosque, the Kukeldash complex in old Tashkent, and the famous Chorsu Bazaar. We walk around its stalls. Some are well-known, thanks to YouTubers and bloggers discussing Uzbek street food. We will dive into the local vibe.

Then, we take the metro. We look at the beautiful Alisher Navoi and Cosmonaut stations. Next, we visit the Museum of Applied Arts to see its unique displays. Our Tashkent trip ends, and we go to the airport. We fly to Urgench. There, the driver meets us and takes us to Khiva. We check into our hotel. We spend a peaceful night in Khiva.

Day 2 Khiva excursion, breakfast

Our day will start with breakfast. Then, we will walk through the beautiful city of Khiva. We will see the Ichan-Kala fortress. It's a special place that the world wants to keep safe. Next, we will visit the Kunya-Ark fortress. This old castle has a lot of stories. We will also look at the Kalta Minor Minaret. It's an unfinished tower that looks very pretty. The Juma Mosque will welcome us next. It has a unique design that takes us back in time. We will then visit the Pahlavan Mahmud Mausoleum. It will tell us about a famous hero. From the top of the Islam Khodja Minaret, we will see a fantastic view of Khiva. It will make us feel like we are in a magical place.

Day 3 Transfer to Bukhara, breakfast

After breakfast, meet with the driver and transfer to Bukhara. Travel through the enormous red sands of the Kyzylkum Desert. You can stop to take in the lovely views and fresh air. Once you arrive in Bukhara, check into your hotel to relax after the seven-hour journey.

Day 4 Bukhara excursion, breakfast

Your day in Bukhara starts after breakfast. You will go on a guided tour through the old heart of this ancient city. The tour is full and varied. You will see some of the most famous and essential sights, each with a story.
First, you will see the Samanid Mausoleum. It's the oldest building in Central Asia and is known for its beauty and balance. Next, you will visit the Chashma-Ayub Mausoleum. It's famous for its holy spring and the stories about it. The Bolo-Hauz Mosque is next, famous for its beautiful woodwork.
Then, you will see the Ark Fortress. It was a strong place and home for Bukhara's leaders. The Poi-Kalyan Complex is next. It is beautiful and has a big mosque, a minaret, and schools. The Ulugh Beg and Abdulazizkhan schools are also must-sees for their stunning art.

Walking under Bukhara's trading domes will take you back to when these places were busy with trade on the Great Silk Road. The Lyabi-Hauz Plaza, with a big pond surrounded by schools and a khanqah, is peaceful and beautiful. You will also see the Bukhara Synagogue, showing how different cultures and religions have lived together in the city for many years.

Day 5 Bukhara - Samarkand, breakfast

After breakfast, a tour of the outskirts of the city of Bukhara. Today, the program includes the Chor-Minor madrasah, the mausoleum of Bahauddin Naqshband, where Sufi pilgrims from all over the world flock, the country palace of the last Bukhara emir Sitora-i-Mokhi Khosa and the Chor-Bakr (City of the Dead) cemetery.
After looking around, we'll keep going to Samarkand. Arrival in Samarkand, hotel accommodation

Day 6 Samarkand excursion, breakfast

We start our day with a tasty breakfast. This kicks off our exciting trip to the magic city of Samarkand with a guide. This trip is more than a tour. It's a deep look into a city full of stories and beauty.
First, we go to the famous Registan Square. Here, three big schools stand. They are not just buildings. They are stories in stone, sharing old tales with us. Next is the Gur-e Amir Mausoleum, where Tamerlane rests. It's a place where history and beauty meet. We will also see the family crypt, where Tamerlane's family lies. Then, we move to the Bibi-Khanym Mosque, a big sign of love and faith, and the Siab Bazaar. This market is a total of colours and smells.
We also see the Shahi-Zinda, its beautiful tombs, and the Hodja Daniyar Mausoleum. It's full of legends and history.
The Afrosiab Museum will surprise us with its old art. The Ulugh Beg Observatory will let us reach for the stars with its big tool.

Day 7 Samarkand - Tashkent
Breakfast, free time, after lunch meet with the driver and transfer to Tashkent, arrival in Tashkent in 3-4 hours, hotel accommodation.

Day 8 Tashkent, breakfast
After we eat in the morning, we will leave our hotel. We will meet our driver and go to the Tashkent airport to check in for our flight back home to end our fantastic tour in Uzbekistan.

The tour price covers the accommodation cost in 3* hotels:
Khiva - New Star Boutique, Orient Star Medresse
Bukhara - Nodirabegim Boutique, Rizo Boutique
Samarkand – Karvon, Registon Saroy
Tashkent – Orient Inn

Price per pax in double/twin room:
2 pax - 1047$ per 1 pax
4 pax - 801$ per 1 pax
8 pax - 595$ per 1 pax
10 pax - 579$ per 1 pax
19 +1 free- 502$ per 1 pax

Included
- accommodation in a standard double/twin room;
- Breakfast only
- 4-6 pax accommodation in yurt camp with full board.
- English, German, Italian, French, Spanish speaking local guides in each city
- air-conditioned transport for excursions and all the transfers;
- visa support to Uzbekistan (if necessary).

Not Included
- air ticket Tashkent - Urgench;
- meals;
- Entrance fees to monuments and museums ;
- early check-in and late check-out from the hotels;
- travel insurance;
- excess baggage, which is more than 20 kg;
- expenses for personal needs;
- visa cost to Uzbekistan.