private tour of the astronomical clock and the old town hall

Unlock the secrets of the Old Town Hall and Astronomical Clock in an exclusive behind the scenes experience.

→ Discover the heart of Prague's most iconic landmark — the astronomical clock, a masterpiece dating back to 1410. You'll gain exclusive access to the intricate inner mechanism, revealing secrets and insights normally hidden from view.

→ Witness the clock's complex gears and enjoy a rare, close-up look at the twelve apostles while listening to the captivating stories and fascinating legends of the Clock Master.

→ Embark on an unhurried private tour of the Old Town Hall's historical interiors. See grandious paintings by Václav Brožík, discover the mysterious depths of the medieval underground, and enjoy magnificent views of Prague from the top of the tower.

→ You'll have the opportunity to visit areas outside the usual tour routes, on the "other side of the ropes."

private tour of the clementinum's baroque library

Gain exclusive access to the most beautiful baroque library in the world, the Clementinum.

→ Nowadays, the library is closed to the public but it used to serve as a seat of the Jesuit university from 1722. Volumes stored in its vaults include manuscripts that are a thousand years old.

→ You will be guided through the history and points of interest by an expert on manuscripts and old prints from the National Library of the Czech Republic.

→ You'll have the opportunity to admire a mesmerising collection of clocks by Johann Klein, alongside twelve UNESCO-listed globes.

→ If you decide to make a donation to assist with the restoration or digitisation of a manuscript to maintain it for future generations, we will enable you to be the only person in the world to view the original. We will bring it out of the vault into the library's space in white gloves.

starry night at petřín tower

Imagine an evening of unparalleled elegance and wonder atop the Petřín Tower.

→ Visit the renowned landmark on an exclusive tour outside regular opening hours.

→ Begin your magical evening with a private funicular ride to Petřín Hill and listen to intriguing tales from our guide.

→ Sip a drink at the top of the tower while listening to live ambient melodies and enjoy enchanting panoramic views of Prague's illuminated skyline.

→ Conclude your night with an intimate stargazing session led by a professional astronomer, peering through telescopes to uncover the mysteries of the cosmos.

private tour of the mayor’s residence

Ordinarily closed to the public, this residence opens its doors just for you, offering a rare glimpse into its opulent interiors and storied past.

→ Experience a private tour of the unique, usually inaccessible official Residence of Prague’s mayor, which can be visited only with the mayor’s consent.

→ Marvel at the artistic jewel of Czech Art Deco with cubist elements, built to commemorate Czechoslovakia’s independence.

→ Wander through luxurious rooms adorned with original furniture and ornate details, including a stunning ceiling crafted from genuine gold in the music room.

→ Enhance your visit with exceptional catering or the chance to attend a private concert within the elegant setting of the residence.

wine tasting from prague vineyards

Step into a world of history, culture, and flavor with an exclusive visit to a private vineyard and savor the unique flavors of Prague wines.

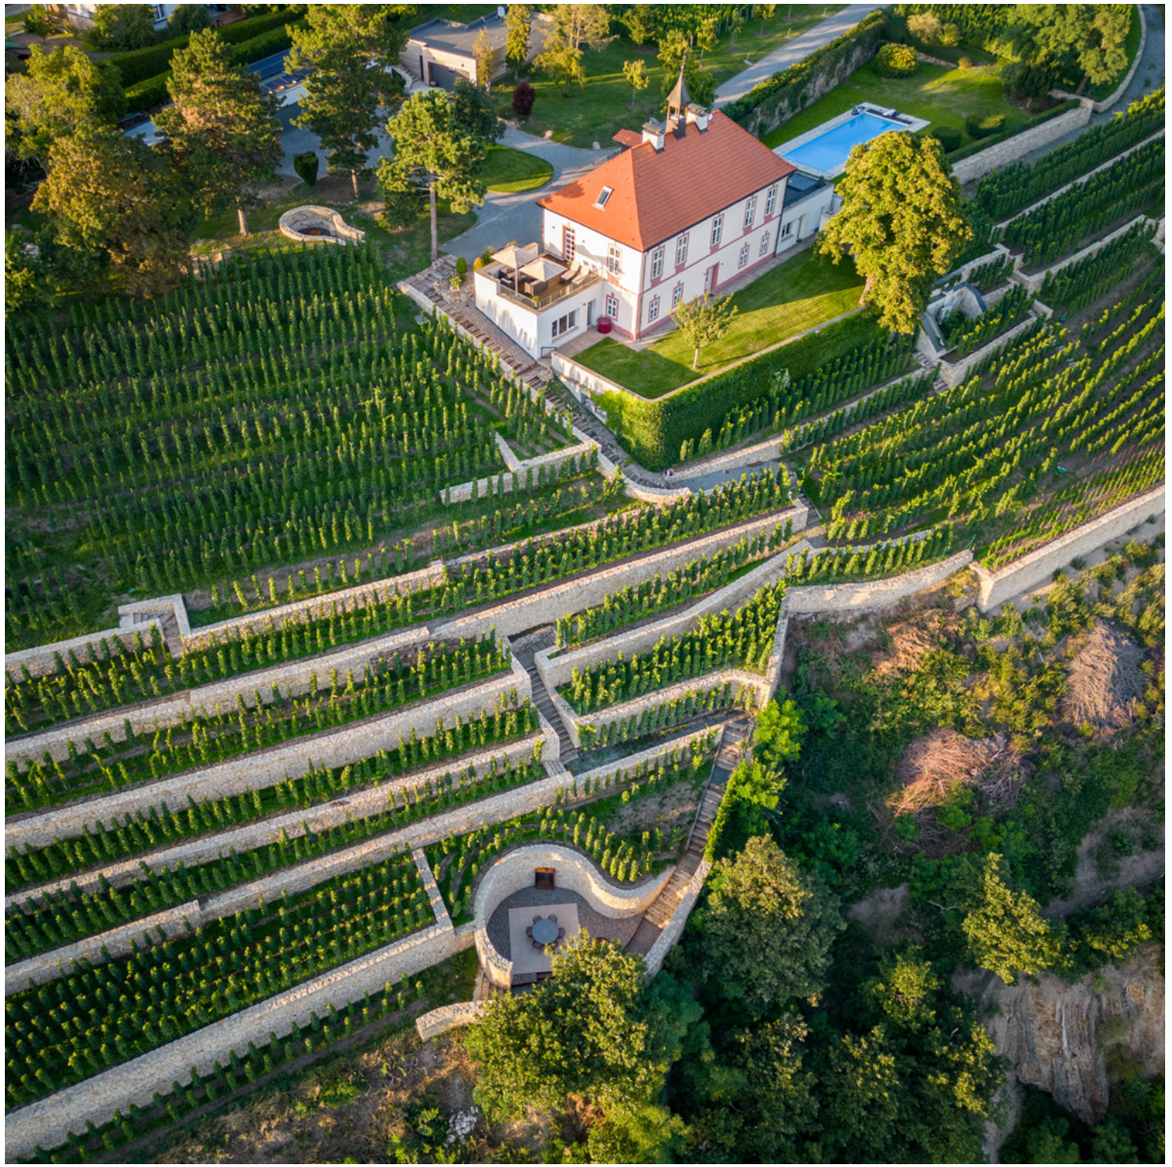

→ Explore a private vineyard on Černý Kopec in Prague's Troja district, where the winemaking tradition dates back to the reign of Charles IV.

→ Enjoy a guided tasting of Prague's finest wines with expert sommelier J. Beer, complemented by locally sourced seasonal refreshments.

→ Glimpse into the ancient art of winemaking while enjoying breathtaking views over the Vltava River and the city's majestic skyline.

→ The tasting is hosted in the award-winning Fibonacci Pavilion at the Jabloňka vineyard, blending innovative design with historical charm.

→ This exclusive experience is perfect for wine enthusiasts seeking a unique cultural and culinary journey.

private tours and special occasions

Experience private tours tailored to your preferences. Visit the city's historical sites outside of regular opening hours or celebrate special occasions at the top of Prague's iconic towers, whether it's a romantic evening or your business milestone event.

❶ Private Guided Tours

Discover Prague your way with our customizable private tours. Choose from a diverse range of themes that match your interests. Uncover the stories and secrets of Prague like a true insider. Our licensed local guides provide top-quality service in more than 40 languages.
